UNPRECEDENTED NUMBERS

Qualified Negro Grads Being Sought By Industry

NEW YORK (AP) Qualified Negro college graduates are being sought by industry this year as never before. A survey indicates that unprecedented numbers of industrial recruiters have swarmed over campuses to hunt out, talk to and in many cases hire Negro graduates to top starting salaries.

magazine, which conducted the survey, there is a general feeling that industry really wants the Negro, that the recruiting rush isn't merely a desire to provide "window dressing."

One student was quoted as saying: "We believe the new jobs are for real, that this is not a fad. There is some uncertainty about the future, but the general belief is that more jobs are opening up."

Fisk University in Nashville has had to extend its normal recruiting sessions for at least another month. Howard University in Washington, D. C., turned away more recruiters this year than visited the college five years ago, and has logged 50 per cent more interviews than last year.

The main targets of the recruiters are top Negro graduates majoring in science, biology, physics, mathematics, chemistry and engineering. Starting salaries in these fields run up to $670 a month with an average just under $600.

Placements directors say they could place many more science and engineering graduates than they have available.

WRIGHT or WRONG

by John Wright

"President Johnson may cry 'peace, peace' but he will not have peace until he changes what we are doing in Viet Nam."

Taken out of context, Sen. Morse's quote speaks for two views of the Viet Nam situation. One view advocates full U. S. commitment to the war, while the other view abhors the fact that the U. S. is involved in the war at all.

Let's take the first alternative — win the war. Congressman Daniel Flood (D, Penn.) and a member of a House Appropriations Committee, is an advocate of total U. S. involvement in the war.

In effect then what Congressman Flood wants is a firm decision to launch an offensive with American combat troops.

Turning now to the second alternative — total withdrawal — we can put Sen. Morse's quote back into context.

Proponents of that policy apparently ignore the fact it would be just a question of time before Communist guerrillas do infiltrate territory that comes under

U. S. treaty obligations. What do we do then? Rationalize ourselves into backing out of that one too?

Surely the American public is sick and tired of hearing of new South Vietnamese advances supported by American military advisors, only waking up the next morning to hear that the offensive bogged down, and that heavy casualties were suffered from a Communist guerrilla ambush.

It's no use calling McNamara names, he only follows orders. President Johnson bears the ultimate responsibility, and unless something drastic happens between now and November he will delay any unpopular move concerning the war in South Vietnam until after he is elected to office.

Saturday's Local Primary Your Voice For President

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Official date for casting your vote for president of the United States is November 3. But the only way to be certain you have some say in who is elected president next fall is to become one of the 10 per cent in each political party to participate in a precinct convention.

These conventions in the state's 6,000 voting precincts will be held on Saturday. They are usually held at 2 p.m. in rural areas and 8 p.m. in cities.

To take part in a precinct convention, you must first become a "qualified member" of a party by voting in the primary Saturday. The election judge will stamp "Republican" or "Democrat" on your poll tax receipt.

This qualifies you to attend the precinct convention.

There, a delegate for each 25 votes cast in the precinct for your party's 1962 candidate for governor will be elected to the May 9, county convention.

Both parties in Brazos County will hold their county convention May 9, at Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan.

At that convention, county delegates to state conventions to be held on June 16 and Sept. 15 will be elected. The meeting in June will select and instruct delegates to the national conventions. Also, at that time, candidates for presidential elector will be selected.

September meeting will write a party platform and select the state executive committee which runs your party's affairs between conventions.
