Ex Returns To See Son

An Army colonel who received an ROTC commission 30 years ago flew here Saturday to pin gold bars of a second lieutenant on his son.

Col. James K. Watts, provost marshal for the 2nd U.S. Army at Fort Meade, Md., witnessed the graduation and commissioning of his son Kaighin. Lt. Watts, assigned to the Armor branch of the Army, will report to Fort Benning, Ga. in July.

Watts, a general business student at A&M, was co-captain of the swimming team and a cadet platoon leader. He was graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in San Antonio while his father was provost marshal at Fort Sam Houston.

Colonel Watts received his ROTC commission in 1934 from the University of Oregon. He spent three years as professor of military science for the ROTC detachment at San Jose State College in California.

A World War II veteran with the 3rd Infantry Division, Colonel Watts has been on active duty since 1941.

Wardens Assigned

Sixteen new game wardens reorted to assigned districts throughout Texas, following a May 30 commencement exercises.

The graduation climaxed a year of training with the Parks and Wildlife Commission and A&M. Wildlife Commission and A&M.

The growing body of scientific literature in Russian is the impetus for Russian language studies.

"Our undergraduate Russian courses include premedical students, physicists, mathematicians, engineers and others including some liberal arts and social sciences students," Woolkett said.

John M. Skrivanek, a native Texan but longtime student of the Slavic languages, will teach the special reading course this sum-
