

ADJACENT TO DOMED STADIUM

Houston Plans Livestock, Rodeo Hall

Plans for the new home of the Houston Livestock Show were presented Tuesday at the annual meeting of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Association.

The new home will be built adjacent to the famed Harris County Domed Stadium, which will house the rodeo held as a feature of the livestock show.

Construction is set tentatively to begin Nov. 1, 1964. The show will be held in the new facilities beginning in 1966.

The new home, a giant Y-shaped building, will be the world's largest air-conditioned livestock exhibition hall under one roof. It will cover 12 acres and will accommodate 1,700 head of halter cattle, 600 horses, 1,000 commercial cattle, 1,200 swine, 1,200 sheep and goats.

The new building will offer a 208 feet by 80 feet judging arena, separate sheep and swine arenas, an auction arena for breed sales and commercial cattle, facilities for poultry and rabbits, a milking parlor, with observation facilities, and level ramp loading facilities.

Contracts for the exhibition hall have been signed with the Houston Sports Association, and approved by the Harris County Commissioners Court. Plans and specifications are being drawn by Lloyd, Morgan & Jones, and the Wilson, Morris, Crain & Anderson architectural firms.

New officers elected at the meeting were: G. D. (Sonny) Look, secretary; A. G. (Tex) Peden, vice president. Officers re-elected: Chairman Neill T. Masterson, Jr., President Stuart Lang; G. M. Becker, W. D. Black, Jr., J. A. Gray, Leonard McNeill, W. M. Mitchell, W. F. Monroe, R. A. (Al) Parker, Louis M. Pearce, Jr., vice president; Herbert G. Turner, treasurer.

New directors are: J. Ernest Black, M. C. (Buddy) Bray, Stanley Danburg, Robert T. Herrin, Luke Johnson, George J. Knigge, Danny Lang, Wm. A. McHattie, James C. B. Mallette, Fred L. Martin, V. H. Prange, R. C. (Robbie) Robertson, Wert Sharp, M. A. Taylor, Willard Walbridge, Leonard T. Wilson.

President Lang expressed his appreciation to the membership for making the '64 show the most successful ever, with a record number of volunteer committee workers. He said a record number of rodeo entrants competed for the largest purse offered at any rodeo in the world except the National Finals, a Rodeo Cowboys of America sponsored event.

FUTURE HOUSTON STOCK SHOW HOME.
