A Big Aggie Howdy!

Student Reception Highlights Session

An informal reception for new students, parents and friends with President and Mrs. Rudder and other university officials will highlight the new students conference session which will begin Sept. 9 and continue until classes begin on September 14.

The reception will be held in the Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center at 7 p. m. Friday, September 11.

A barbecue supper will begin the events on Wednesday evening and will be followed by a general assembly for all new students in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

President Rudder will issue the welcoming address at the session and will be followed by a hootenanny led by Robert Boone, director of the Singing Cadets.

Thursday's program will begin with breakfast at 6:30 a. m. All new students will attend assemblies at 8. The assembly activities are scheduled to acquaint the student with the college or school and the department in which he will do his major work.

The September 10 afternoon session will include Dean of Students James P. Hannigan, who will preside over talks on "Student Life at Texas A&M University" and the student activity programs. The program will begin in G. Rollie White at 1.15 p. m.

At 3 p. m. all cadets will assemble in the coliseum where Col. D. L. Baker, corps commandant, will preside over the meeting. Civilian students will meet in the Assembly Room of the MSC where Director of Student Affairs Bennie A. Zinn will preside. J. Gordon Gay, Coordinator of Religious Life and general secretary of the YMCA, will preside over the 7 p. m. meeting for all students in G. Rollie White. Don Warren, president of the YMCA Cabinet will give "The Place of Religion at Aggieland." Local ministers will be introduced to the new students, followed by an open house of local churches.

Friday's program begins for all cadets at 8 a. m. in the coliseum where the Cadet Corps Commander will speak on "The Corps of Cadets" and cadet officers will give talks on corps life.

At 9:30, all cadets will meet in the dormitory area where the cadet unit commanding officers will preside. The cadets will resume at 1 p. m. in the same location.

Activities will close for Friday with the reception by university officials and exhibition and explanation of activities of student activity groups in the MSC.

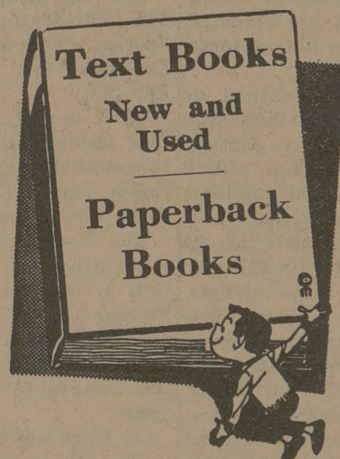

Cadet orientation and organization of cadet units in the dormitory area will be the agenda for Saturday.
