

4-H Winners Given Trophies, Awards

Top winners in the second State 4-H Horse Show received trophies and awards last Friday at a luncheon at A&M University.

Richard M. Kleberg, Jr., of Kingsville, executive vice president of King Ranch, spoke to the 4-H members and their leaders on "Practical Experiences in Horse Production."

Four county awards were made, based on the total number of points won by all contestants from a county. Top winner in the AAAA-county group was Harris County, whose 33 contestants accumulated a total of 62 points in the show.

Wichita County claimed the AAA-county honor, having 13 contestants who won 19½ points. In the AA-county category, Ector County, with eight boys and girls, won a total of 16 points. Top honors in A-county competition went to Anderson County, with 29½ points earned by three representatives.

Judged top showman was Tommy Martin of Throckmorton County. This contest was based on the ability of a contestant to show his horse at halter.

The high point horse of the show was "Our May Boy," owned and exhibited by Marcus Hadaway of Harris County. The animal won 11 points in halter and performance classes.

A total of 336 boys and girls from 58 counties competed in the 17 classes of the big horse show. Most youngsters entered as many as five contests, running total entries to more than 1,600. Last year, 212 boys and girls from 36 counties participated.

Wake 'em up Gabriel!

There isn't much music coming out of that horn. But one thing's certain; this little fellow is making plenty of noise.

If it happens to be Sunday morning, when the family sleeps late, this sturdy musician isn't going to receive much praise. His lungs are strong, though, and he's going to sit there and toot that trumpet until Mom or Dad takes it away from him.

All of his playmates are at Sunday School, so you really can't blame him for trying to while away the idle hours. Unfortunately, his parents haven't got the Church-going habit, so this boy will probably grow up like them and sleep away the hours in which he could be getting spiritual nourishment.

You've got the right idea, Gabriel. Wake them up to their responsibility!
