

Texans In Washington

By TEX BASLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — A key figure among Democratic presidential campaign strategists is Cliff C. Carter, a 46-year-old business and civic leader from Bryan.

Carter, who served during World War II as an officer in the 36th Division, is assigned to the Democratic National Committee as President Johnson's personal representative.

During the Democratic National convention in Atlantic City, Carter met with small groups of state and regional leaders to map plans for the coming campaign.

Carter has been a full-time aide to Johnson since 1957 — first in Bryan, then in Austin for two years before coming to Washington in 1961. Early this year Carter moved over to Democratic National Committee headquarters as LBJ's personal representative. For months he has been making far ranging trips as political trouble shooter.

No Johnny-come-lately to Johnson's side, Carter served as Johnson's campaign manager in Texas 6th Congressional District when the future president won election to the Senate.

Two years earlier Carter managed Rep. Olin Teague's first campaign for the House from the Bryan-Corsicana (6th) district.

He was appointed U. S. marshal for southern Texas in 1949 by President Harry S. Truman on the recommendation of Johnson, then a senator. Carter held the post until April 14, 1954. In Johnson's 1954 successful bid for reelection Carter served as LBJ's campaign manager in five southeast congressional districts. In the 1960 campaign, when Johnson successfully ran both for reelection to the Senate and for the vice presidency, Carter traveled throughout Texas in behalf of Johnson.

Carter was born Aug. 2, 1918, in Smithville, Bastrop County, and attended Schroiner Institute in Kerrville, where he played football and basketball and served as cadet corps leader. He was attending the University of Texas as when the Texas National Guard's 36th Division, to which he belonged, was federalized in 1940. He served five years, including 30 months overseas.

Carter is married to the former Mary Jane Garrett of Kerrville. They have five children.

AUSTIN — Initial post-convention plans and strategy mapped by President Johnson for the November general election campaign will bear a "made in Texas" label. "Made in Austin, Texas" would be more specific, for much of it will originate here.

The President, his nomination as the Democratic party's standard bearer secured, hurried home to his ranch to rest up and do some thinking.

His visit attracted greater interest than any since his first as president, during the Christmas-New Year season.

With Vice Presidential Nominee Hubert Humphrey as his guest at the ranch, private talks inevitably turned to the battles ahead.

Gillespie County Democrats welcomed the President back to his home county with a Hill Country-style birthday celebration and barbecue two days after his 56th birthday.

MOTORCIDE — Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Head of the State Department of Public Safety, announced that "Operation Motorcide," the grim tabulation of Labor Day Weekend traffic deaths as they occur, will go into effect Saturday (Sept. 5) at 12:01 a.m.

Garrison said his department estimates 36 persons will be killed on streets and highways during the 72 hours from the beginning of "Operation Motorcide" to 11:59 p.m. Monday.

But he said the prediction won't come true if ALL drivers make certain both themselves and their vehicles are in excellent condition, and if they use "caution, courtesy and good sense" at all times while at the wheel.

EDUCATION REPORT — Gov. John Connally's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has completed its report and recommendations for excellence in Texas colleges and universities.

The 64-page report, recommending doubling of higher education expenditures within the decade and placing of all institutions under a strong coordinating board, has been delivered to the governor.

REDISTRICTING — Congressional redistricting hearings conducted by a Texas Legislative Council committee will wind up here next month.

Meetings already have been held in Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Lubbock and Tyler.

Committee chairman, Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, said the group has "many suggestions" for redistricting.

Its big job now is to mold them together and come up with a reasonable plan or set of plans for legislative consideration, thus carving the state into 23 congressional districts as nearly as possible equal in population.

CONSTRUCTION — Texas construction reached a 35-month peak during July.

It was the greatest building month of the year and second highest month in nearly 18 years of records compiled by The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

A whopping $140,600,000 of building was authorized in July. It represented a 21 per cent increase over June.

Bureau also reports that retail sales in the state during July rose two per cent over June. Normally there is a small decline between the two months.

Meanwhile, the U. S. Department of Commerce reported that the average income of Texans rose last year from $1,973 to $2,068.

BUS FARES — Hearings on a request from 31 bus lines to raise their intrastate passenger fares by 10 per cent were set for September 19 by the State Railroad Commission. Motor bus express and C.O.D. charter coach services also seek an increase.

The lines, including major carriers, maintain they have had sharp cost increases in their operations since 1961, when fares were raised five per cent.

YOUTH COUNCIL — The Texas Youth Council — administrator of Gatesville and Gainesville schools for delinquent youths and of juvenile parole programs — told examiners from Governor Connally's and the Legislative Budget Boards' offices it needs to raise its biennial budget by $6,200,000 to $18,300,000 for fiscal 1966-67.

Council's director, Dr. James A. Turman, warned that the youth-reform system would be set back to the difficult days of 1957 unless the State Legislature approves a sound, long-range program of care and construction.
