Saturday Classes Not Planned—Yet

By GERALD GARCIA
Staff Writer

With this indication, H. L. Heaton, director of admissions and registrar, said the present school policy of not having Saturday classes will be continued.

"But," he noted, "the 1965-66 university bulletin has not been completed, and I have not received any notice of change."

Corps intramurals are scheduled to open Oct. 5. Intramural contests will be scheduled so Wednesdays will be left open for drills.

"If this can be accomplished, drills will be conducted on this day," noted Hotchkiss.

"But if things cannot be worked out, then Saturday drills will have to start the week of Oct. 5," Hotchkiss added.

The present school policy is to conduct most classes on week days so the Corps can drill on Saturdays.

Last week cadet units drilled Thursday, departing from the usual Saturday practice. Hotchkiss said week day drills will continue at least for the next two weeks until the intramural schedule is released.

This week's drill is also scheduled for Thursday, Hotchkiss added.

CAMPAIGN

Barry Renews Texas Trip; Johnson Plans

Sen. Barry Goldwater arrives in Amarillo Tuesday to start another round of political appearances by the big guns of both parties wooing Texas' 25 electoral college votes.

Arriving in Dallas Tuesday will be an administration cabinet member, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara.

And Friday, and probably all weekend, President Lyndon B. Johnson will be in the state.

Goldwater will spend three hours in Amarillo, landing about 11:45 a.m. for a speech in the Potter County Stadium, a baseball field.

Johnson disclaimed any feeling of over confidence Monday and said he is going to campaign all over the country so he can look over the voters "in the eye."

Johnson, whose campaign plans have been somewhat hazy, told a news conference:

"We think that the people want to hear from us, they want to get our viewpoints on public questions, they want to know how we stand on issues, so we are going to be visiting all over this country."

Goldwater returned to the attack on the Supreme Court on Monday night for its school prayer and reapportionment decisions. He described them as examples of "raw and naked power."

Making his third campaign stop in North Carolina in less than a week, the Republican presidential nominee said also, in a prepared speech: "I challenge my opponent, the interim President Lyndon Baines Johnson, to face the issues. I dare him to face me before the world. I demand of him—debate."

Swedish Cut-away Swim Suits

Kirstin, Miss Sweden of 1963, wears a one-piece swim suit with cut-out sides. Ingrid, wears a black suit, but with the front cut low to the midriff. Two buttons keep the suit closed. (AP Wirephoto)

Coeds, Servicemen Increase Enrollment Over 1963 Figures

An enrollment increase to 8,221 undergraduate and graduate students as of late Monday has been reported here.

The figure compares with 8,120 registered at this time last year, reports H. L. Heaton, director of admissions and registrar.

Enrollment figures also include a rise in women students from 183 to 244, and the record 198 Air Force officers, compared to the 250 assigned here in August, 1963. Also showing an increase is the Army officers where 37 are registered compared with the "normal" assignment of 15 to 20.

All of the Army officers are graduate students and are seeking a master's degree, announced Lt. Col. Richard M. Love, senior officer.

Of the 37, 24 are civil engineering students, while 12 are studying mechanical engineering and one is in computer science.

Three of the Army officers are Aggies, with most of the 37 having completed undergraduate studies in the late 1950's and are now lieutenants or captains.

"Everyone upon graduation should do at least one normal tour of duty utilizing at least one aspect of his studies here," Love said.

The 298 Air Force officers include 201 from the Air Force Institute of Technology and 97 from the Air Training Command. The AFIT officers are career men with up to 20 years of service and are mostly graduate students, while the Air Training Command officers are in the fields of computer and newly-commissioned men.

Most of the Air Force officers are in the fields of computers science and electronic data processing.

Dorm Council, CSC Seats

Up For Grabs

Filing began Monday for six positions on the Civilian Student Council, and for dormitory councils in Dorms 19, 20, 21 and 22.

Enrollment for the posts will continue through Friday with elections Sept. 30, according to Paul Oliver, council representative.

Four representatives from the new dormitory area and two day students will be decided in the election. Representatives to the dorm councils will also be decided.

Oliver said all dormitory residents will vote for the representatives to the CSC and dorm council. Councilmen were not elected last spring since the dormitories were not occupied.

Civilians filing for dormitory council must have at least a 1.00 grade average and be free from all probation. Those filing for CSC positions must have an overall 1.25, Oliver said.

Civilians seeking positions on the CSC or dorm councils should file with the dormitory house master. Day students should file with William G. Breazeale in Room 1-H of Puryear Hall.

Day student elections will be held between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Sept. 30, in the day student parking lot, Oliver said.

Presidential Party

President and Mrs. Earl Rudder will be hosts Tuesday night for the annual Faculty-Staff Reception, one of the year's highlights at A&M University.

The reception from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Memorial Student Center ballroom will honor new faculty members.

United Chest Drive Begins Here Sept. 29

The College Station United Chest fund campaign will be conducted Sept. 29-Oct. 9, J. M. Hendricks, local Chest president, has announced.

The Chest directors decided to stage the drive at the same time of the Bryan United Fund push.

The College Station goal is $19,000, or $1,000 above last year. Fifteen agencies will share in the 1964-65 budget.

Dr. R. M. Stevenson heads the budget and admissions committee which studied requests from the various agencies. Chest directors unanimously approved recommendations of the committee.

R. L. Hunt, Jr., will direct the College Station fund effort. A kickoff breakfast is planned Sept. 29 with College Station residents urged to contribute one day's pay to the United Chest program.

Joining Hunt on the campaign committee are Bill Holt, chairman, commercial establishments; Jack Bradshaw, federal agencies; W. Taylor Riedel, school system; Dr. Ide P. Trotter, College Station community; W. E. Donaldson, A&M University, and Dr. Harrison E. Hierth, co-chairman, the University.

ID Cards Ready

Identification cards made during registration are ready for distribution, H. L. Heaton, director of admissions and registrar, announced Monday.

The new identification cards will be used for current semester activities. The cards may be picked up at the News Stand located in front of Sbis Hall, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.
