

Spirit—A&M Style
The Aggies set the stage for a victory over the University of Houston with a massive demonstration in front of Henderson Hall Wednesday night. The surprise Yell Practice was just another step in reviving the Spirit of Aggieland. Civilians and Corps students joined arms in "sawing varsity's horns off" as part of the preparation for Friday night's contest.

Supreme Court Grants Stay On Part Of Civil Rights Act

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court granted a stay Wednesday, holding up a lower court decision which struck down a section of the Civil Rights Act as applied to a Birmingham restaurant.

At the same time, Justice Hugo L. Black said he had been authorized by the five other justices here to say the court is willing to hear arguments on the case on Monday, Oct. 5.

That is the opening day of the court's new term, at which it has already agreed to hear the first challenge to the new law—the Atlantic motel case. It is rare for the tribunal to hear arguments on opening day.

Black, who supervises the circuit where the cases were heard, said, "It is an established rule of law that courts of equity will not exercise their power to enjoin the enforcement of an act of Congress except under the most imperative or exigent circumstances."

On Aug. 10, Black had refused on the same ground to block enforcement of the civil rights law in the Atlanta case, in which a three-judge federal tribunal held the public accommodations section of the act constitutional.

The Atlanta case involves a motel owned by Moreton Rolleston and a restaurant owned by Lester Maddox.

The Birmingham case, in which the result was the opposite, involves Ollie's Barbecue.

The situations are different. The Atlanta restaurant is located adjacent to an interstate highway, close to interstate commerce, while the Birmingham establishment is several blocks from the nearest type of interstate travel.

Friday Deadline For 2 Senate Seats

Filing closes Friday noon for two positions in the Student Senate, announced Don Warren, vice chairman of election commission.

Senior representative of the College of Engineering and recording secretary of the senate are open. Sophomore representative for the College of Agriculture will also be decided because of a mix-up in the spring elections.

Election will be held in the Memorial Student Center Tuesday.

2 U. S. Planes Gunned Down In Viet Nam

By The Associated Press
SAIGON, South Viet Nam — Viet Cong guerrillas shot down two U. S. Air Force fighter-bombers in a fight 125 miles southwest of Saigon Wednesday and presumably captured two of their four crewmen — one American and one Vietnamese.

The missing American was identified in Washington as Lt. George E. Flynn III of New Orleans, La., an instructor pilot.

The planes were Douglas Skyraiders, single-engine, propeller-driven two-seaters. They carried Vietnamese markings but are U. S. Air Force craft used to train Vietnamese pilots.

The Skyraiders were hit while striking Communist units that were attacking a town and two government posts in the Rach Gia area, on a bay of the Gulf of Siam.

The occupants of Flynn's plane bailed out. The Vietnamese pilot was rescued, but his tutor was missing and fellow officers believed him to be a prisoner. The second plane crash-landed. The U. S. pilot made his way to government lines. His Vietnamese companion failed to get through.

Far to the east, other Skyraiders helped blast suspected positions of the survivors of a Viet Cong battalion that staged a night attack on a clay-walled civil guard outpost at Long Phu.

Though heavily outnumbered the 51-man garrison repulsed the attack and even battled the Communists for the Viet Cong dead and arms that fell outside the barbed wire defenses. Reputed to have killed 30 or 40 of the attackers, they collected 20 bodies and 26 weapons.

GM To Keep Same Prices

By The Associated Press
DETROIT — A General Motors announcement Wednesday that it would hold the line on its 1965 car prices allayed fears of an inflationary spiral in the auto industry.

GM, largest of the auto makers, said basic prices of its new models which go on display Thursday would remain unchanged for the seventh consecutive year. Ford had said earlier its Lincoln-Continental prices would be unchanged.

Chrysler Corp. and the remainder of Ford's divisions are expected to announce prices Thursday. American Motors said its new figures would be announced by next week.
