

Lutherans Planning Fete

Members of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the congregation and the 10 anniversary of the dedication of the Sanctuary October 4.

The church has grown from a congregation of about 12 members to a vast membership of 541, bringing pride and happiness to its members.

A little band of Lutherans, on December 19, 1939, adopted a constitution for the American Lutheran Church of College Station. The group, including A&M students, met on Sunday evening in the YMCA for several years.

Their work was well rewarded when in 1948 the congregation and students saw the dedication of the Lutheran Student Center.

During the early 1950's, the name of the congregation was changed to Our Saviour's Lutheran Church. But the changes did not stop. A beautiful church was built, adding fuel to the flames of hope of that little band of Lutherans, now a large congregation.

Even now, plans are being executed to increase the physical structures of the church.

The spiritual growth of the church has been greatly favored by the excellent leadership of the pastors who have served and are now serving.

Such leadership includes Pastors Hartmann, Mgebroff, Swygert, Svendsen, Brossia (intern), Bulgerin, Fry (intern), Ruch, Gaiser (intern), Rostvold (assistant), and Birk.

From the beginning the purpose of the church's work has been to administer to all Lutherans in the community. It has adhered to this purpose for 25 years.

The out-reaching of the congregation's work and student's work throughout the years has had far-reaching effects. In hopes for future success, the members have as the anniversary theme "Forward With Christ."

Pastor Kurt Hartmann, the first pastor of the church, will be the principal speaker for the afternoon anniversary service. All former pastors have been invited.

Registration of guests will begin at 1:30.

Pinkie Announces Campus Visitors

A total of 1,302 visitors were on campus during September, P. L. Downs Jr., A&M's official greeter, announced. They were attending short courses, conferences, class reunions and other scheduled meetings.

World Wide Communion will be observed Sunday at the A&M Methodist Church at 8:30 a.m. and 10:55 a.m. services. A new class for married undergraduates will meet for the second time at 9:45 a.m. Sunday in the Wesley Foundation Building.

The Methodist Church will have a family picnic at Hensel Park at 5:30 p.m. Sunday. A worship service will be conducted after the meal. College students have been invited and are not expected to furnish their own food.

"Unity in the Covenant" will be the theme of the First Christian Church's morning worship service Sunday as they take part in observing World Communion with churches across the nation. Rev. Walter Allen, associate minister of the church, will deliver the morning message.

The church's first evening services begin Sunday at 6 p.m.

The Friday morning communion service for student groups is set for 6:45 a.m. at the Wesley Foundation Building. The Disciples of Christ, Methodist, Presbyterian and United Church of Christ students participate in a joint communion service each Friday. The program will last about 30 minutes. Afterwards, doughnuts and coffee will be available.

Pastor Ron Birk, associate pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, will be in charge of the church's activities for Aggie students this year.

A newcomer here, Birk is a native of Mason, and holds the B.A. degree from Texas Lutheran College and the B.D. degree from the Capital Seminary in Columbia, Ohio.

Have you ever investigated the "questioning mind of the biologist"? This is the theme of the first of eight seminars to be conducted by the University Lutheran Church during October and November at the Presbyterian Student Center.

Dr. H. O. Kunkel, associate director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, will be the speaker.

Gamma Delta, Association of Lutheran Students, will meet 7:15 p.m. Wednesday in the YMCA Building.

A college student breakfast will be held from 7-9 a.m. Sunday in the Presbyterian Student Center.

A pancake fellowship will begin at 6 p.m. Sunday for students at A&M Presbyterian Church.

The church will observe World Wide Communion at 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Sunday.

Fellowship for married students and their wives will start at p.m. Sunday at First Presbyterian Church in Bryan.

A panel will discuss the topic "Is God Leaving The Campus?" after a fellowship banquet at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday at the Presbyterian Student Center.

Regular services of the Wednesday noon seminar group begin Oct. 7 at the Presbyterian Student Center.

The topic of study, "What Christians Make Political Decisions", will continue through national elections.

The First Baptist Church pulpit will be filled by the Rev. Arthur Smith Sunday in the absence of Dr. Kyle Yates.

The Baptist Student Union will host an after-game fellowship at the Baptist Student Union immediately following the A&M - Texas Tech game.

A Bible Study is being held at 7 p.m. Monday and at 5 p.m. Tuesday at the BSU. These studies are conducted as short courses and last from four to six weeks.

The Reverend Gordon Swank of Beaumont will speak at the Thomas Episcopal Chapel at 7 a.m. Oct. 8.

Following the speech, a 16mm film, "Malawi", will be shown. Refreshments will be served after the program.

Dr. J. W. Roberts, professor of Bible at Abilene Christian College, will speak at the A&M Church of Christ Oct. 4-7. Services will begin at 7:15 nights.

St. Mary's Catholic Chapel will conduct services at 7:20 p.m. Wednesday immediately followed by a Newman Club meeting. Instruction and inquiry class will be held at 7:15 p.m. Sunday and at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday.

The A&M Wesley Foundation will have a "recreation evening" at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Group and table games are available and activities will be coordinated by Miss Sue Reynolds.
