Middie - Tech Tilt To Open Weekend

By BOB HOOBING

 Navy sail against unbeaten Georgia Tech Friday night short of its Jolly Roger, and the weakened Miami Hurricane awaits a storm of passes from California's Craig Morton. That's the theme of early action as college football enters its fourth major weekend.

Olympics Lose North Koreans After Dispute

TOKYO (AP) — North Korea pulled out Thursday night, Indonesia threatened to follow suit, and rain fell most of the day from sullen skies as the opening of Tokyo's long-awaited Olympic Games approached. The games start Saturday and run through Oct. 24. The not-expected withdrawal of the North Koreans came after Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in Moscow, expressed confidence that the Tokyo Olympic "will facilitate the further consolidation of friendship and cooperation between all people."

The Middies must fight the battle of Jacksonville without All-America quarterback Roger Stauback, forced to remain at Annapolis and rest his ailing ankle. Texas, defending national champion and top-rated currently, plays host to Oklahoma, while Ohio State travels to Illinois in a Big Ten showdown between undefeated powers Saturday. Illinois is listed No. 2 in latest poll and the Buckeyes follow. Not far away seventh-ranked Michigan ventures to ninth-ranked Michigan State in the classic series for the Paul Bunyan Trophy, a Ten contention—and blood.

Another game between unbeaten pits heavily favored Alabama and its Joe Namath against surprising North Carolina State. Fifth-ranked Kentucky is at Florida State, sixth-ranked Notre Dame at Air Force and eighth-ranked Nebraska plays host to South Carolina.

Arkansas, tied for the ninth spot with Michigan State, goes against Baylor's pro-type offense in a major Southwest Conference struggle. The Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League won all five preseason exhibition games.
