Cricket Team Wins, 66-32

The A&M Cricket team opened the season with a 66-32 victory over the Houston 11 in a five-hour match here Sunday.

A. P. Kudchadker and M. V. Kudchadker paced the Aggie attack. A. P., team captain, scored 20 runs as offensive standout, while M. V. took 6 wickets on defense.

The team's next game will be at the Dallas County Cricket Club in Dallas Oct. 25.

1939 Champions Return This Week

The 1939 Texas Aggies were undefeated, untied, named National Champions and went on to beat Tulane, 14-13, in the Sugar Bowl.

This weekend members of that great squad, their wives, children and in some cases, grandchildren, will hold their Silver Anniversary reunion on the A&M campus. They will attend the A&M-TCU game as a group.

Headquarters for the reunion will be the Sands Motel in College Station. The group will be luncheon guests of Coach Hank Foldberg and the A&M Athletic Department prior to the game. A buffet banquet is scheduled Saturday night at Briarcrest Country Club in Bryan with Morris Frank, columnist and humorist of the Houston Chronicle, as master of ceremonies.

J. Howard Shelton, president of the Texas National Bank in Temple and center on the 1939 team, is the general chairman, with Marion Pugh, College Station builder and lumber yard owner, co-quarterback of the champions, serving as local chairman.

Over a 10-game schedule this team allowed their foes an average of 76.3 net yards total offense, figuring down to 1.71 yards a play. It was a team that apparently could score at will but was content with a three-touchdown margin. In their six SWC games, only a 6-2 squeaker over SMU missed that margin.

They were masters of ball control. In the Sugar Bowl game, nursing a one-point lead, they held the football for the final 9:30, winding up on the Tulane one-yard line. Rather than risk another kick return by Tulane's great Bob- by Kellogg, Aggie captain Cotton Price elected to run out the clock rather than score.

John Kimbrough, tackle Rev. Joe Boyd and guard Marshall Robnett won All-American honors and the majority of the starting unit won all-SWC honors.

Homer Hill Norton, coach of that great machine, will induct Kimbrough into the first A&M Hall of Fame Friday night.

The Southern California Trojans allowed the Aggie wooden horse a seven-point peek Saturday night, slammed the gates shut and handed the cadets their fourth straight loss, 31-7.

Halfback Mike Garrett led the Troy offensive by slashing for 121 yards rushing and two touchdowns. The 178-pounder was mercifully removed from the game early in the fourth quarter by Coach John McKay.

The Aggies stunned the crowd of 42,295 by scoring on the game's sixth play. Cadet secondary ace Mike Pitman picked off an SC pass before the Memorial Coliseum audience got settled in their seats, and streaked 33 yards to the Trojan seven.

Four downs later, tailback Jim Stabler crashed over from the one to score his second TD of the season. Glen Lindsey's conversion made it 7-0, Aggies.

The next three quarters were all Southern Cal.

First, Trojan quarterback Craig Fertig engineered a 68-yard scoring drive which bore fruit with 14:26 left in the second quarter.

Garrett then sparked a drive which played out at the Aggie five when the Cadet defense stiffened. Dick Brownell booted a field goal from that spot and sent Troy home at halftime with a 10-7 lead.

The second half added insult to injury as the Angelenos completely dominated play.

With 4:11 gone in the third stanza, Garrett rambled through a gaping hole in the Ag line to put six more points on the scoreboard.

Late in the fourth quarter, Ag punter Phil Scoggin laid a kick out of bounds on the Trojan 12. It was only a matter of time.

Ron Sherman broke for 24 yards and the officials tacked on 15 more for piling on. Fertig took to the air and drilled end Dave Morton for 34 yards. Garrett then plunged for the touchdown.

The final SC tally came after the interception of a Dan McIlhenny pass at the mid-field stripe. The ensuing effort carried to the Ag 34. The Ags were charged with pass interference in the end zone on the next play and the ball was placed on the one.

Two plays later fullback Ron Heller crashed into the end zone for that game's last tally.

A fumble recovery by tackle Harvey Ermis gave A&M its only possession of the football in Trojan territory the entire second half.

Young Catcher Vetoes Keane, Wins Ball Game

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Talk about accidental home runs. Tim McCarver's three-run homer that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 10-inning 5-2 triumph over the New York Yankees in the fifth World Series game Monday was the biggest dent of all.

In the first place, McCarver was supposed to punt. That was Manager Johnny Keane's original plan. But he vetoed it when he thought Yankee catcher Elston Howard was on to it.

Even when ordered to hit away, McCarver was not swinging for the seats. All he wanted to do was get the ball past the infield to bring home the runner from third. "It was the biggest hit I ever made in my life," chortled McCarver as the fun-loving catcher re-lived the greatest thrill of his young life. "But all I wanted to do was get enough good wood on it to score Bill White from third."

"It was a squeeze situation and we had one in mind," explained Keane. "I thought about it but dismissed it from my mind when I saw Howard watching me intently."

"He had been watching me all game and I figured he had guessed what I was up to. So we let McCarver hit."

McCarver, a .288 hitter during the season, has been swinging a hot bat in the Series. He had two singles, besides his game-winning homer.

Who are these Unitarians?

Unitarians are not bound by creed or dogma, each reserves the right to formulate his own religion, based upon his own intelligent reasoning. As a religious group, they believe the DEED to be more important than the creed. Possibly that is the reason so many outstanding humanitarians were members of the Unitarian denomination. These include Thomas Jefferson, Horace Mann, Daniel Webster, Susan B. Anthony, Emerson, Hawthorne, Longfellow, Maria Mitchell and many others. Unitarians believe that the way a person lives is the real test of his religion.
