Hinze Picks Ags Over Frogs

What are A&M's chances against TCU this Saturday afternoon? "Good," says Ray Gene Hinze, big rough senior tackle for the Aggies. "I saw TCU on TV this year and I know that they have a good football team. I know that they are hungry for a win this year, but I also know that we are going to be hungrier.

CIVILIAN FRESHMEN Aggie-land '65

Civilian Freshmen will have their pictures taken for the Aggie-land '65 starting the 5th of October and running through the 16th of October. Pictures will be taken at the Aggie-land Studio at North Gate between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. Coat and ties should be worn.

Hinze, from LaVega High near Waco, has been called A&M's top lineman. He is one of the very few who plays both ways this season.

At 6-1 and 221 pounds, Hinze this year is closing out an Aggie career that will find him winning three letters in varsity football. Looking back over his football career at A&M, Hinze picks last year's Texas and Rice games as both his roughest and his best. A&M beat Rice 13-6 and was "outscored" by Texas 15-13. Hinze picks University of Southern California as the roughest team the Aggies have played so far this year. He says their line was big, fast and rough.

Hinze went on to say "that when the Aggies get together they will go and win some ball games this year and I believe that we are really ready to take this game from TCU."

At LaVega he was an all-around athlete. He was all-district four years in football, second-team all-state his junior year and first team all-state as a senior. He competed in track one year and won the district shot put.
