

Reynolds' Rap

by Mike Reynolds

The late 1960's show all the indications of being a key period in the history of the United States and the world. It is certainly not a time to sit on one's laurels and brag about how "we never had it so good." It is not a time to be proud of modest accomplishments and whitewash the graft and corruption that creeps into big government when the guard is down.

In short, it is time for a house-cleaning. It is time for a change. It is time to move forward with the Senator from Arizona, Barry Goldwater at the helm.

The present administration has stood idly by and watched while the Communists of East Berlin built a wall imprisoning an estimated 25 million people.

BUT NOT SENATOR GOLD-WATER.

The present administration was host to one of the biggest military blunders in American history, the abortive Bay of Pigs invasion that cost Americans many millions of dollars in property that is probably lost for all time, and that cost the Cuban rebels much more.

BUT NOT SENATOR GOLD-WATER.

The present administration has continued to dodge the fact that American soldiers are giving their lives in a war in Viet Nam that they won't even admit exists.

BUT NOT SENATOR GOLD-WATER.

The present administration has openly encouraged the leaders responsible for mass violence in the streets of American cities in the name of civil rights.

BUT NOT SENATOR GOLD-WATER.

The present administration has continued to avoid the scandals of Billie Sol Estes and Bobby Baker for fear that the finger of guilt may point in the direction of the White House itself.

BUT NOT SENATOR GOLD-WATER.

And then, above all else, they have the nerve to ask the American people, "... let us continue." On the other side of the slate, Senator Goldwater's campaign is far from being negative only.

How can plans to reduce the size of government, to stop government competition with private concerns, to further cut taxes, to aid further those supporting the youth of the U. S. in colleges be called negative?

How can plans to return fiscal responsibility to the ledgers of the U. S. Government, to return control of a state's own responsibilities to the state itself, to stop aid to Communist countries, to take a stand for victory be called negative?

Yes sir! Senator Barry M. Goldwater is the man for the White House.

KIM LAURENCE NOVAK HARVEY IN W. SOMERSET MAUGHAMS OF HUMAN BONDAGE

Editor, The Battalion

The enthusiasm displayed by the Aggie exes at the USC-A&M game in Los Angeles was overwhelming. It is unfortunate that the same spirit was not shown by the yell leaders present. Many of the exes went to much trouble to be at the game — traveling from as far away as Phoenix, Ariz. While we cheered our team, even in the face of defeat, the yell leaders sat in front of us doing nothing to organize the spirit into a semblance of that shown at other A&M games. We supposed that the yell leaders had some reason for being at the game in their capacity as yell leaders, but we were unable to determine just what the reason was. Some of the exes went so far as to make up and lead yells in the section. Were we expecting too much from the yell leaders?

As a member of the class of '64, I saw many changes. It was rumored that one of these changes at A&M was a decline in the Aggie spirit. While I strongly denied this during my years at A&M, I'm beginning to wonder if I was wrong.

Editor, The Battalion:

In regards to the satire so cleverly, if you can call something like that clever, written by the so-called "former student," Mr. John D. Barron, '50; does he really think that he could do a better job than Mr. Foldberg? Also, did he play football for A&M or is he just another large mouthed "Ex" that likes to ride the coach's back? In other words, is he just a "fair weather" Aggie?

I was under the impression that Aggies stuck by the team and coaches even when they're down. I guess I'm wrong. Am I Mr. Barron?

For 87 years, A&M was the best all male college to be found anywhere. That is tradition now, a thing of the past. Face the facts, A&M is co-educational. There is no reason that A&M can't be the best co-educational university in the world except that some "Aggies" don't want it to be anything if it can't be like it always was. If you really have the "spirit" I believe it is time to do something besides feel "cold chills."

— Sound Off —

Traditionally Aggies love their school above all else, but some of us are so filled with the "spirit" that we won't work together to make A&M a university of the future with a past to be proud of.
