national Miniature Print Competition and Exhibition held in April,

The competition, sponsored by the Pratt Graphic Art Center of

New York, seeks to revive the almost lost art of miniature print making, overshadowed in recent years by the gigantic works of Jackson Pollock, Pablo Picasso

A majority of the 73 works ex hibited are excellent examples of craftsmanship and artistic ability, yet the pricing is the $3 to $25

Although the entire exhibit could easily be carried in one's shirt pocket, the quality of the work is in many ways superior to any comparable exhibition presented by the Memorial Student

Of particular interest are "Bar-

Concerning education, the President has said, "Onto my desk each day come the problems of 190 million men and women. When we consider those problems study them, analyze them, evaluate what can be done, the answer almost always comes down to one word: education."

On the other hand, Senator Goldwater has said, "The Government has no right to educate children. The parents, you and I, have that responsibility. The child has no right to an education. In most cases, the children will get along very well without
