

Aggies Challenge Baylor

The Cadets will brandish their finest anti-missile weapons Saturday on an effort to gun down Baylor's blitzkrieg air attack.

The battle will unfold in Waco's Baylor Stadium at 2 p.m. The Bears have been tabbed 11 point favorites.

The Aggies are catching the Bears on the rebound. The Bruins bombed Texas Tech, 28-10, last week for their first victory of the half-over season.

A&M has a string of five straight setbacks working this year and would like nothing better than to sever it at Baylor's expense.

Last season, Don Trull and Lawrence Elkins put on a dazzling aerial exhibition in romping to a 34-7 triumph. Trull is gone but the peerless Elkins returns.

The All-American flanker has snared 18 passes already this season for 413 yards and three TD's. The former Brownwood all-stater is likely to erase every pass receiving record in the Southwest Conference record book before he's through this year.

Elkins' battery mate, Terry Southall, is also a former Brownwood all-stater. The poised sophomore has seized the starting signal-caller position at BU and is rapidly taking up where Trull left off.

The 175-pounder is the SWC's leading passer this season with 46 completions out of 93 attempts, good for 660 yards.

Still a third Brownwood star will play an important role Saturday. Rugged Ag guard Ronnie Moore will line up the right side defensively.

The Aggies will throw an all-season secondary up against the Bruins. Mike Pitman and Jerry Nichols will start at halfback and Jim Willenborg will hold down the safety slot.

A&M will counter Southall with sophomore quarterback Eddie McKaughan. The swift, 185-pounder moved to the fore of the quarterback picture when Dan McIlhany was injured in the TCU contest.

The Aggies will have nine sophomores on their two starting platoons, six of them on offense. McIlhany is the only Ag casualty for the tilt.

Baylor will be without the services of flanker Paul Becton and starting center Ernest Erickson. Sterling linebacker Bobby Maples is due to be back in action.

The game will highlight Baylor's homecoming and a crowd of about 30,000 is expected.

The Aggie Band will make their first out-of-town appearance of the season at the contest.

The Battalion Cubs Hammer Fish In Freshman Due

By BOB SPIVEY
Asst. Sports Editor
WACO—The A&M Fish dropped their second game of the season Thursday night to the Baylor Cubs, 34-6.

The Cubs, led by their outstanding fullback Charles Wilson, proved too much for the scrappy Fish. Wilson carried the ball 15 times while amassing 110 yards. The hard-hitting fullback broke through continually for key gains against the hard-pressed Ag defense.

The fledgling Aggies were held to only 83 yards rushing. The leading rusher for the Ags was Frank Litterst, who carried the ball three times for 25 yards.

The happy note in the Aggie offense was the superb passing of quarterback Gary Kempf, who completed 7 out of 13 passes for 103 yards.

The only Fish score came a razzle dazzle play in the second quarter. Kempf handed off to halfback Bill Salle who ran back to Kempf. The quarterback then passed to Mark Weaver, a 46-yard touchdown play.

Baylor, playing straight ball, scored twice in the second quarter, once in the third and twice in the last period to obtain their 34 points.

The Aggies had two passes blocked by the alert Baylor defense, both of which set up scoring opportunities for Baylor. The Fish also had two passes intercepted which helped keep the bottled up in their own end of field.

The Fish played a much better game than the score might indicate. Costly errors were responsible for their downfall.
