A brunch and discussion will be at 10:30 at the Hillel Foundation. Dr. Raymond Reiser, professor in the Department of Biochemistry and Nutrition here will lead the discussion.

Dr. George Krise of the Department of Biology will speak to the evening discussion group of the Unitarian Fellowship at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Dr. Krise's topic will be "Problems of the Impact of Scientific discovery on Orthodox Theology." The group will meet in the Unitarian Fellowship Building at 305 Old Highway 6 South.

A series concerning "Church Doctrine" will begin Wednesday at a luncheon study conducted at the Presbyterian Student Center. The discussions will be led by the Rev. James H. Fenner, director of the Presbyterian Student Center, and the Rev. Walter Allen, campus minister of the Church of Christ.

The Gamma Delta business meeting is scheduled at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday in the YMCA.

Meats Section Names Panel

Two students and one secretary have been chosen for the meats tasting panel of the Department of Animal Sciences meats chemistry section.

The panel will start work in about a week. They have been in the training phase of the program. After training they will be tasting and scoring meat according to tenderness, amount of connective tissues and other points.

The students are Charles Ivy, a graduate student in engineering, and Donna Litteau. The secretary is Mrs. Sandra Wilson, a secretary in the Animal Industries Building.

Rockefeller Aid Available At YMCA

Rockefeller Foundation Scholarships are available at the YMCA to persons interested in lay or ministry work.

Anyone wanting details is urged to contact J. Gordon Gay, YMCA general secretary, as soon as possible.

Gay said the scholarships will pay tuition, room, board and travel to and from school to qualified students.

"These scholarships are good for any recognized theological school in the United States," he said.

A person who decides against going into the ministry at the end of the first year can withdraw from school without financial obligations, the secretary said.

Applications should be filed by Dec. 1.
