

Razorbacks Roll On

By LANI PRESSWOOD

The Red Horde is gone. Freddy the Hun and his Razorback teammates have taken their No. 4-ranked machine back to the Ozarks.

In their wake was a 17-0 decision over the Aggies in a conservative, defensive football game Saturday night.

The contest was played in two halves which were really games within themselves.

The first half saw the Hogs rack up all their points, garner nine first downs and gain 149 yards from scrimmage.

In the second half, Arkansas was held to two first downs and 62 yards in total offense.

The Pigs did all their scoring within a ten-minute period in the first half. The first tally came with 5:09 left in the first stanza on a five-yard sweep by tailback Jackie Brasuel. After an 82-yard drive.

With 17 seconds left in the opening period, Tom McKnelly booted a 33-yard field goal after a 49-yard drive had been blunted. The last scoring occurred with 10:35 to go in the half. Arkansas had to travel 61 yards for the touchdown. All but 19 yards of it came on penalties. The crucial flag was thrown on a pass interference call which resulted in a 37-yard Razorback gain.

Brasuel slanted two yards for the tally.

The Cadets mustered two good drives, one stopped by the clock and the other by an incomplete pass.

The Ags drove 50 yards in nine plays in the second quarter. With the ball on the Razorback five, Eddie McKaughan's fourth down pass overshot the straining hands of end Billy Uzzell, all alone in the end zone.

The other Cadet march of note came in the waning moments of the game. From the Pig 49, McKaughan pitched the Ags down to the Razorback one in 5.4 seconds. The final gun sounded before the Maroons could get off another play.

The ball game proved several things.

It proved that Arkansas has a solid ball club, with an effective quarterback in Fred Marshall. They are rugged, aggressive, and tremendously quick.

It showed that the A&M offensive line is still too erratic to produce steady gains against a top defensive club.

And finally, it proved that there is still life in the Twelfth Man.
