

Aggies Smash SMU To End Drought

DAN WESTERFIELD CHURNS FOR YARDAGE ... unidentified Pony hauls soph in after end sweep.

The Aggies broke out the champagne and danced in the streets Saturday night.

Only hours earlier, the Cadets stunned a Cotton Bowl crowd of 32,000 by decisively clubbing SMU, 23-0. It was the worst conference defeat inflicted upon Coach Hayden Fry in his three years at the Pony reins.

The statistics were as one-sided as the game. The Ags led in first downs, 15-6. They out-gained the Mustangs 248 to 38. SMU wound up with -10 yards rushing.

The statistics which mattered to Aggies, though, was the one on the scoreboard. It favored the Cadets for the first time in 51 weeks. The win over the Rice Owls last season had marked the most recent scoreboard triumph.

The key name for the Farmers in Saturday's sun-filled contest was Eddie McKaughan. The poised sophomore completed 8 of 16 passes for 83 yards and had four others dropped.

He drove the Cadets to within field goal range in the first half and to their initial touchdown midway of the third quarter. An out-of-bounds injury forced Mc-

Kaughan out of the game in the fourth period.

His performance during the three quarters he played earned him SWC Back-of-the-Week honors in the Dallas Morning News.

McKaughan was one of a whole host of Aggies who played superb football Saturday. Senior end John Brotherton made several amazing catches to keep Ag drives alive.

Sophomore wingman Ed Breeding logged as much time in the SMU backfield as some of the Pony ball carriers. Secondary performers Jim Willenborg, Mike Pittman, and Mike Phillips all stood out.

The Maroon offensive line provided flawless protection for Ag quarterbacks, who connected on 14 out of 24 passes. The Cadets defensive wall caused four fumbles with sharp tackling and completely stymied the Mustangs offense.

Placekicker Glynn Lindsey had his finest afternoon in an Aggie uniform. His kickoffs were much improved and his 29-yard field goal provided the Ags with a 3-0 halftime margin.

Lindsey's boot came with 7:06 left in the first half. It was set up by a Pony fumble on their own 25. Breeding laced into tail-back Jimmy Taylor and the ball floated free. Ag guard Sherman DeBusk pounced on it for the Maroons.

McKaughan rifled an 14-yard pass to Brotherton on the Mustang 13 on a 3rd and 12 play. Three efforts failed to gain, however, and Lindsey was called in to exercise his toe.

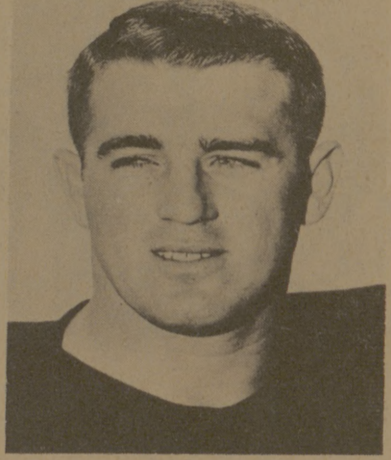

Intermission was spiced by a brief flurry on the sidelines but cooler heads prevailed and no real trouble broke out.

The second Aggie score came late in the third quarter. Another Mustang fumble preceded it. Reserve signal-caller Donnie Oefinger, playing with a wired-up broken jaw, fumbled on his own 29 and Breeding was on the spot to claim the ball for A&M.

Seven plays later, the Cadets pushed across for the TD. The key play was a 15-yard scamper by McKaughan to the one-yard line. Bubber Collins knifed in behind Jack Pyburn and Tommy Kirchner for the tally.

Lindsey's conversion attempt was blocked and the third quarter ended 9-0.

JOHN BROTHERTON ... great day Saturday.

DeBusk recovered a third fumble on the third stanza play which set the Ags in again.

On this drive, Charles Grange replaced the dazed Kaughan at the helm. The Ags seven plays to reach the 43 yards. LaGrange threw three passes on the drive and one found the mark.

Two were snared by Brotherton and were good for 27 and 10 yards. The third was a touchdown to end Billy Uzzell which was a thing of beauty.

It was a 17-yard spiral Uzzell hauled in over his shoulder in the left corner of the end.

The hungry Aggies were through yet. In the final minutes of the game, the Ags won the Ponies on their own 43.

Dan McIlhany then made his first appearance since the game at quarterback. He placed LaGrange, who had been knocked out of commission at same end sweep play on the field. McKaughan had been injured earlier.

Seven was the lucky number again for the Ags. That number of plays it took McIlhany to engineer the score.

Lindsey's placement finished the day's scoring.

Ag Dressing Room Noisiest Of Year

The locker room vocabulary of the victorious Cadets Saturday consisted of two words: "It's great!"

This refrain was echoed by the tired but happy Aggies as they were questioned by reporters and congratulated by well-wishes.

Aggie mentor Hank Foldberg said, "I'm damn proud of the way these kids have kept coming back, week after week. They've been playing like this all year. The difference was that nothing serious happened to us this game."

Eddie McKaughan, soph quarterback who had an outstanding day, said, "This is great. This is what I was used to in high school. We're going to beat Rice and Texas, and that's for sure."

End John Brotherton, who played with his back shot full of novocaine, talked slowly from behind a pair of puffed up eyes. "This was the best game of my life offensively. Those passes were there."

Speedy Lloyd Curington: "The line blocked great. Everyone played heads up ball. We finally got the offense and defense together. It had to happen. We knew it was coming."
