

Fish Try Picadors Tonight

The A&M Fish journey to West Texas this week to meet the Texas Tech Picadors at 7:30 p.m. Thursday night on neutral grounds in Midland.

Four of the Fish will be returning home for this game. They are quarterback Frank Hooper, halfbacks Rusty Harris of Abilene, Bill Sallee of Midland and tackle Howard Van Loon of Rotan.

Harris, the 155-pounder with great body balance, is the leading Fish rusher with 92 yards on 16 carries. Sallee is third with 47 yards on 16 tries. Starting fullback Robert Cortez of San Benito is second with 49 yards on 10 carries. Hooper has hit three of four passes for 30 yards in limited duty this year.

The fledgling Aggies are still searching for their first win. They have lost to TCU, 40-21; Baylor, 34-6, and Rice, 11-0. A rash of injuries has hampered the Fish all season.

The Aggies have eight of their previous starters riding the bench because of injuries. Among them were end Richard Shamblyn, tackles Rickey Paris and Ray Holtz and guards Jerry Brausuel, Rod Moss and Dave Hickman.

Coach Berl Huffman's Picadors are also looking for their first win of the season. The Pics have lost to SMU, 27-0; Texas, 29-0; Arkansas, 18-14 and Rice, 17-8.

The leading ground gainer for the Pics is big 214-pound fullback James Haney with 85 yards. The Pics like to pass and they have an excellent passer in quarterback Chris Alford who has 9 out of 17 passes for 109 yards. He has also managed to add 40 rushing.

The Fish will leave College Station on a chartered bus about 8 a.m. Thursday and will return to the campus Friday morning.

The Tech frosh will probably start ends Larry Gilbert and Louis Breuer, tackles Phil Tucker and Alan Radabaugh, guards Jerry Glover and Gene Darr. Kenneth Hill is expected to start at center.

Coach Hoffman's backfield will have Chris Alford at quarterback, Bob Bearden and Kenny Baker at the halfback slots and James Haney at fullback.

Ruling On Flag In Hog Contest Is Cleared Up

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

On the last play of the Arkansas-Texas A&M football game, an official threw his flag. But there was no penalty and the game ended with the Aggies on the Arkansas one-yard line.

Nobody checked with the officials on why the flag was thrown and why there wasn't another play as a result of the penalty call.

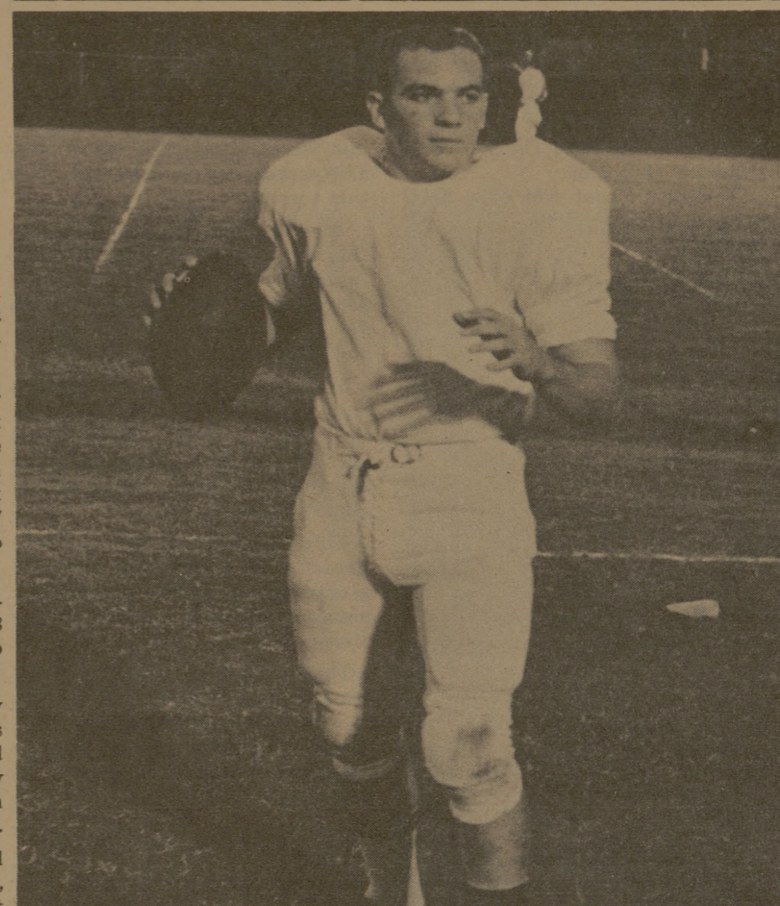

Some said the officials must not have taken action on the violation because the Aggie stands had emptied and the Cadets had flooded the field as they always do at the end of a game.

The implication was that there already had been enough trouble and the officials thought it best not to prolong it.

Which, however, was quite incorrect. The official had signalled a violation all right but it was against the offense—it was offensive pass interference.

The rules say that if a violation by the offense occurs on the last play of the game, the thing ends right there. No additional play can be given. It's the same at the half. At the end of the first and third quarters the violation is carried over into the next period.

In the case in point those who didn't know the rule said the Aggies were deprived of a certain touchdown, because if they had been given another play they undoubtedly would have scored.

QUARTERBACK PAUL JOHNSON ... will direct the Fish attack against Picadors.
