

Fish Host Texas In Season Finale

By BOB SPIVEY
Asst. Sports Editor

The Aggie Fish close out their schedule Saturday afternoon against the University of Texas Shorthorns in a 2 p.m. struggle in Kyle Field.

Versatile Texas tailback Greg Lott will lead the Yearling attack against the injury-ridden Fish. Lott has proved to be the best Texas offensive weapon as he appears in every statistical category for the Shorthorns.

The former Lubbock tailback has averaged almost nine yards per try on the ground with 25 carries for 222 yards. He has punted once for 59 yards and has scored three Shorthorn touchdowns. He has hit two passes in three tries and has caught one pass for 14 yards and a touchdown.

Lott has done just about everything that could be expected of someone who started out this year as a wingback and defensive halfback.

Pat Harkins will start at quarterback for the 3-1 Shorthorns, who will be without one of their top offensive threats, Linus Baer. Baer, the outstanding back from San Antonio Lee, underwent a knee operation two weeks ago and is out for the rest of the season.

A&M will counter the powerful

The world's longest maked foot-path is the Appalachian Trail, 2,050 miles of mountain hiking in the eastern United States. It was completed in 1937 by volunteer crews of hikers and naturalists.

Shorthorn offense with the passing of Gary Kempf, the breakaway running of halfbacks Rusty Harris and Bill Sallee and the hard running of ace fullback Robert Cortez.

A&M will be searching for their first win of the season. The Fish have come close in their contests but they haven't been able to come out on the long end of the score.

The A&M Fish-Texas Shorthorn game is a small carbon copy of the game that the varsity plays. When any A&M team plays a Texas team you can be sure that feeling runs high.

Getting Up For Longhorns No Problem For Brotherton

By LANI PRESSWOOD
Sports Editor

John Brotherton has a special reason for wanting to avenge last year's Turkey Day game.

Late in the fourth quarter of that game the rugged end intercepted a TU aerial which possibly could have preserved the Aggie lead. He attempted to lateral the ball, however, and the Steers recovered to keep their drive alive.

"I couldn't sleep for two nights afterwards," says the former Mineola star. "I really felt bad about it for five or six weeks."

"The other guys have ridden me so much about it that it's helped get me over it. It would have really been bad if I hadn't had another year."

The 212-pounder has made his last year a good one. He has been playing all-conference caliber ball all season at offensive end.

He is A&M's leading pass receiver and runs like a fullback after his receptions. He pulled in five aerials last week against Rice, one of which was a one-handed grab. One man has seldom been able to bring him down this season.

The P.E. major injured his back in the Baylor contest and has only worked out once since. He only suits up on Saturday and receives novocaine injections to keep the pain down.

One of the reasons the former All-East Texas standout chose

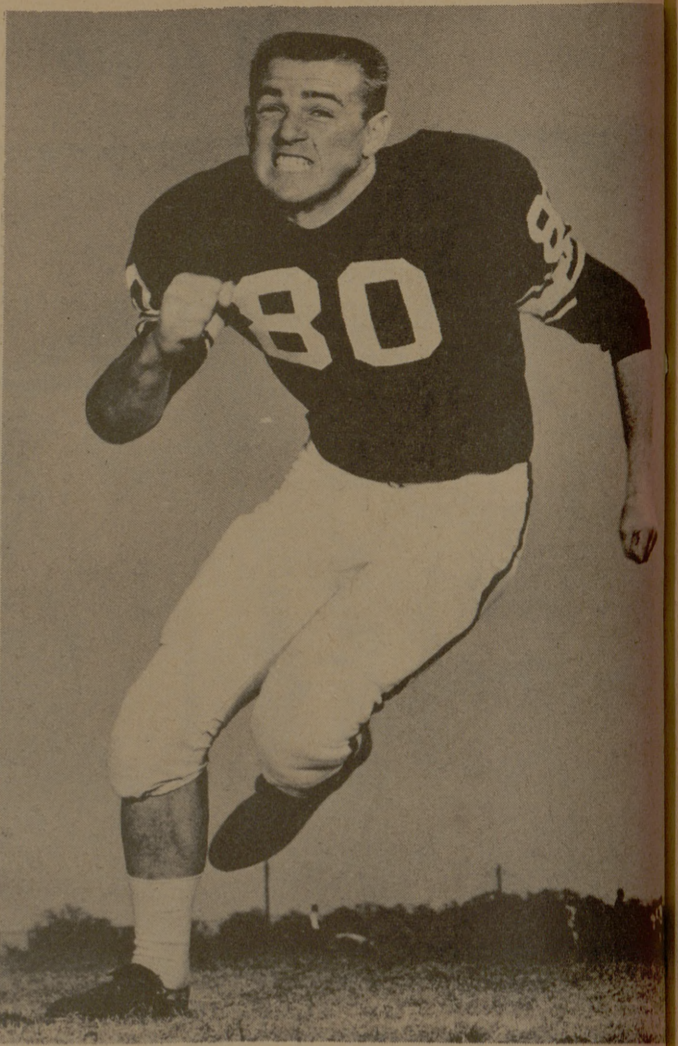

A&M was the spirit they annually displayed against Texas.

As his last crack at the Longhorns nears, Brotherton has been elected along with Ronney Moore as the permanent team captains for the 1964 season.

He jogs daily in sweat clothes and thinks seriously about his last game in an Aggie uniform.

"As a senior you don't have to worry about the boys being up for the game. We'll be ready. You know the saying, 'It's the burning desire of every Aggie to beat the living hell out of TU?' That still goes around here."

The way he said it, you believed him.

END JOHN BROTHERTON ... bent on revenge next Thursday.

Michigan Behind In Total Offense

NEW YORK (AP)—Tulsa hasn't taken everything yet. Michigan will be shooting for a statistical title as well as the Big Ten championship when it plays Ohio State Saturday.

The Tulsa Hurricanes, depending almost entirely on Jerry Rhome's passing arm, are so far ahead in the total offense, passing and scoring statistics released Tuesday by the NCAA that they're virtually uncatchable.

Chuck says he paid 300 bucks less for his Coronet than you did for that turtle of yours

You really know how to hurt a guy

"Chuck's a swinger," says she. "His Coronet is quick and clean, with a lean and hungry look. It's equipped with a 426 cubic inch mill that will mock your turtle at the strip or on the street. He's got four-on-the-floor, buckets, belts, carpets, console, spinners, and a padded dash. And he said that everything but the four-speed stick and the 426 was standard." Then she broke his back by asking, "Didn't you pay extra for some of that jazz?"

Don't let the truth hurt you. Better see the all-new, hot new Dodge Coronet before you buy a (cuckoo), a (cuckoo-cuckoo), or even a (cuckoo-cuckoo-cuckoo).
