Batt Staffer Gets National Award

A&M student Glenn A. Dromgoole of Sour Lake won honorable mention in national competition. He is the only Southwesterner honored in the October general news writing competition of the fifth annual journalism awards program sponsored by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation. Dromgoole, junior majoring in journalism, is managing editor of The Battalion and president of the A&M chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalist society. He was salutatorian of his graduating class at Hardin-Jefferson High School.

Dromgoole was chosen last year as the outstanding Aggie sophomore in journalism and has won Opportunity Awards and Gulf Coast Press Association Scholarships. His grade point average is in the 80s.

He has written for both the Beaumont Journal and the Enterprise and as a columnist for the Sour Lake Oil City Visitor. He was a correspondent for the Journal and a summer intern with the Enterprise.

Man Claims 5 Murders In 10 Years

Dromgoole was honored for his news story on the 12 United States presidents who took office after winning less than half of the popular vote, Robert D. Knight of the Department of Journalism said.

The article appeared in the Oct. 30 issue of The Battalion under the headline "Minority Popular Vote: Fame, Fortune or Fate?".

He receives a Hearst Foundation Scroll and a $25 scholarship prize for winning honorable mention, Knight said. The journalism department is awarded an additional $25.

A record number of entries from 42 colleges was judged in the October competition, Randolph A. Hearst announced. Top honors went to a University of Florida student and the 19 other winners including Dromgoole came from all sections of the country.

The Hearst Foundation program is distributing a total of $40,900 during the academic year to outstanding student journalists.

A&M students through the years have won various honors in the competition for students in accredited units of the American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism.

Peters told his story Saturday to officers here. He had been in a Big Spring jail since late in September, charged with burglary.

Big Spring officers quoted Peters as saying he beat three women to death in a Chicago park in 1960. Officers said he told them he beat a woman to death in Marshall in 1955 and shot an unidentified man to death near Ruidoso, N.M., last June after an argument.

Illinois officers left Big Spring Monday after questioning Peters. They said they had no record of a crime in Chicago as described by the man.

Marshall officers who questioned Peters recommended that he be given a psychiatric examination.

New Mexico officials still looked for a body in a canyon near Ruidoso where Peters said he left it. No trace of a body has been found.

Billie Sol Estes Violates Bond Terms; Is Jailed

DALLAS (AP) — U. S. marshals put convicted swindler Billie Sol Estes behind jail bars for about two hours Monday after Federal Judge Sarah T. Hughes ordered a $10,000 bond forfeited because he violated its terms.

Estes was released to his lawyer in the court room and Judge Hughes then granted a new $10,000 bond with more liberal strictures than the previous one.

It allows Estes to travel freely within Texas but specifies that he must get the court's permission to leave the state. Judge Hughes remitted $9,000 of the previous bond to the sureties, keeping $1,000. She gave no reason.

Estes, convicted of selling millions of dollars worth of phony fertilizer tank chattel mortgages to lending companies, broke the terms of the old bond each time he left northern Texas. Judge Hughes said: "This defendant has thought he could be treated differently by the court. This case will be handled just like any other. I remand the defendant to the custody of the U. S. marshal."

Judge Hughes ordered the bond forfeited at the request of U. S. Attorney Barefoot Sanders, who charged that Estes had taken a "cavalier attitude" toward the court by traveling outside the 100-county jurisdiction of the Northern District of Texas. Estes, a fast-rising West Texas agricultural tycoon until his arrest by the FBI March 29, 1962, was under the $10,000 bond on an indictment charging that he made false statements to the Commodity Credit Corp. He has not come to trial on this indictment.

He has appealed state and federal fraud and conspiracy convictions that resulted in prison sentences of 23 years. His appeal bonds total over $100,000.

Estes, smartly dressed in a black suit and white shirt and wearing his heavy, black rimmed eyeglasses, was led from the court room by a marshal.

He was lodged in a tiny "hold-over" cell in the federal court house and was brought two sandwiches and milk for lunch.

Estes had been free of physical confinement since his first arrest at Pecos, Tex., more than two and one-half years ago.

His arrest and subsequent conditions stemmed from his vast grain storage-fertilizer complex that defrauded prominent financial houses of more than $20 million.

Estes testified Monday that he had traveled to Denver, El Paso, Austin, Houston and New Orleans recently. All these points are outside the northern district, he acknowledged, but added that he made the trips either to gain employment or to handle legal matters.

The $10,000 bond signed by Estes specifies in writing that he is not to leave the district without court permission. Estes said he had never sought such permission but had traveled with the approval of his lawyers.

Defense attorney John D. Coffey argued that the only grounds for forfeiture of the bond would be failure to appear at the court's direction.

Sanders said he had sent a letter in September to Estes and his attorney warning that he would seek forfeiture if Estes left the district again.

Estes has lived in Abilene since October 1963.
