Paul W. Lester, a sophomore industrial education major from 5031 Rusk, Houston, was high point man in the pistol match. His 271 of a possible 300 points led the way for the Aggies team score of 1,299 of a possible 1,500 points. Arlington posted a 1,283 score, Harvey H. Dayton said. He coaches both pistol and rifle teams.

A&M riflemen tied individually for third and fourth place honors and also had a tenth place winner while in team firing the Aggies placed fourth at Stillwater, Dayton reported. This is subject to revision, but Dayton expects the final, mailed summaries to change no standings for the Aggie marksmen.

Marion S. Thompson, Jr., of 2549 Dunoon, El Paso, and Gary Lee Byrd of 5846 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, tied for third-fourth places with individual scores of 549 points of a possible 600. Jay M. Wilkerson, Box 301, De Leon, fired a 541 for tenth place.

The A&M riflemen posted a team score of 2,142 of a possible 2,400 points. Arlington State was tops with 2,172 points.

Elkins Makes Coaches' Team

NEW YORK—Larry Elkins, Baylor's gifted flanker-receiver, who shined in defeat as well as victory, gained an end slot today on the No. 1 All-America team of the American Football Coaches Association.

Elkins, a lean 6-foot-1 senior from Brownwood, Texas, was picked as a running mate of Notre Dame's Jack Snow on the coaches' 75th annual Diamond Jubilee team.

Three top elevens, selected in the tradition of the late Walter Camp by the 512-member association, were announced in the current issue (Nov. 28) of TV Guide magazine by Len Casanova, president of the coaches' group and head coach at the University of Oregon.

The coaches made their picks on the basis of Eastman Kodak slow-motion films of 1964 games, firsthand observations and scouting data. They carried on a practice initiated by Camp, Yale coach, in 1889.

The glue-fingered Elkins flashed anew in 1964 the form which won him pass-snaring honors in 1963. An insight into his unflagging spirit was seen in the Baylor defeats by Washington (35-14) and Texas (20-14). Against the Huskies, he caught a 65-yard touchdown pass and against the Longhorns he snared one for eight.

Cage Match Set

The A&M varsity will scrimmage the Fish for the last time at 5 p.m. Wednesday.

This is the last of five pre-season scrimmages. The varsity has won the first four.

Shorthorns Stampede Ag Fish In High Scoring Tilt Saturday

By BOB SPIVEY
Asst. Sports Editor

The Texas Shorthorns scored once in the second quarter and twice in the third and fourth quarter to down the Fish, 35-18, here Saturday.

Quarterback Greg Lott and tailback Ronnie Ehrig scored two touchdowns each to spark the Shorthorns.

The first quarter was a 0-0 deadlock. Early in the second quarter the Yearlings scored their first touchdown on a five-yard end run by Ehrig. The play climaxed a 77-yard drive.

The Fish came right back with a tally of their own when Texas punter Randy Hudson was caught in his own end zone and tried to throw the ball away. Alert Fish end Mark Weaver gobbled up the ball for the score. The two point try failed.

Lott loosened up his throwing arm and took to the air to engineer the next Texas drive. He threw a 36-yard crucial pass to wingback Darrel McNutt to move the ball down to the A&M 13. Lott climaxed the nine-play, 80-yard drive with a seven-yard scamper around end. Ralph Senior's kick was good, making the score 14-6.

A&M, unable to move the ball, had to kick back to Texas. The Shorthorns then took ten plays to move the ball 53 yards for a touchdown. Once again Senior added the extra point and the score was 21-6. A&M's quarterback Gary Gemph went to the air to try to put the Fish back in the game. Kempf threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to halfback Ronny Menn. Menn made a beautiful catch on the 36-yard line and then pranced down the sidelines, leaving at least four would-be Texas tacklers in his wake.

Menn was sent on a power sweep around left end, to try the two point conversion. He was stopped short, however, by a hardnosed Shorthorn defense.

Texas received the kickoff and went 80 yards in eight plays to add insurance points on the scoreboard. Tailback Ronnie Ehrig went 58 yards on an inside reverse for the score. Senior added the extra point.

The next time Texas got the ball tailback Wayne Lamb went 43 yards on the first play from scrimmage to move the ball down to the Fish 20. Fullback Johnny Cain climaxed the 63-yard drive with a three yard plunge over left tackle.

Once again Senior added the extra point.

Fish halfback Bill Sallee added the last A&M score on a two-yard plunge ending a 67-yard drive. Halfback Scott Blessing tried for the two point conversion but was stopped short.

That ended the scoring. A&M got the ball one more time and tried unsuccessful long passes.

This was the highest scoring Fish-Shorthorn game in the last decade. The highest score before this was in 1958 when Texas beat the Fish 38-13. Usually not more than one or two touchdowns separate these two teams.

The Fish led the Shorthorns 18-16 in the first down department. Texas however rolled up 345 yards on the ground to the Fish's 178. The Fish led in the passing statistics, 134 to 63.

A&M Fish punted five times for 159 yards for a 31.8 yard average. Gary Kempf handled all the punting for A&M. Hudson did the punting for Texas. He punted 10 times for 134 yards for a 33.5 yard average.

The Fish were penalized 10 yards, while Texas lost 67 yards in penalties.

The big difference was that Texas was able to move the ball so well on the ground. Also Yearlings were able to come with the big play when they needed it.

The saving factor for the Fish was the capable passing of Senior and the outstanding receiving of Menn.

The Texas Freshmen used the strategy similar to their varsity counterparts. They were content to ground on the ground. They threw three passes in the first half.

This was the final game of the season for both teams. The Shorthorns posted a 3-2 record. The Fish were unable to crack into the win column all year.

Former Maroon Grid Great On Sports Illustrated Team

NEW YORK—Evangelist Joe Boyd is among this year's Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America winners, announced today. The full story of the 25 collegiate gridgers of the class of '40 who have been honored for their outstanding contributions in life during the intervening 25 years will be presented in the November 30th issue of the magazine.

The Rev. Boyd was the nominee of A&M University, where he was All-America and voted the most valuable player and captain of the national championship team that had gone unbeaten and untied in 1939.

It was generally conceded that he not only could outplay much of his team, he could also outfight, outdrink and outwear everybody on it. The son of a Baptist minister, he enrolled at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1948 and earned his master's degree in theology.

As a youngster, Boyd lived in the suburbs of Dallas, Texas, where he attended grade school and later Crozier Tech High School. He played center on the Crozier Tech football team and made All-City his graduating year, 1935. Boyd then entered Paris Junior College at Paris, Texas.

He transferred to Texas A&M in the fall of 1936. He studied in the accounting field with a CPA Certificate as his goal. He played three years of Varsity football, was All-Southwest Conference two years (received All-American mention two years, and made All-American first team his senior year.

Boyd was also chosen most valuable player and captain of the National Championship Team in 1939 which was undefeated and untied. He was drafted by the Washington Redskins.

Upon graduation, Boyd was employed by Todd Shippard & Galveston, Texas. He rose to the position of assistant chief accountant in four years. It was at this point in his life that he experienced the call of God to preach the Gospel.

When Gordie Howe goes boating...

'Chap Stick' goes along!

"Sure I use 'Chap Stick' during the hockey season," says the Detroit Red Wing star. "With my lips exposed to that ice and cold, it's a must! But after the season, 'Chap Stick' doesn't get put aside. It's just as necessary during the summer. When I'm on my boat, the hot sun is rough on my lips—burns them up, dries them out. 'Chap Stick' helps soothe and heal them fast!"

A favorite in Canada.

The lip balm selected for use by the U.S. Olympic Team.
