

Parr Bankruptcy Case Filed In Federal District Court

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — The bankruptcy case of George B. Parr of Duval County was officially closed today when the final report of bankruptcy officials was filed in federal district court.

The action tied a figurative string around volumes of data compiled since the former South Texas political leader filed voluntary bankruptcy nearly eight years ago, Jan. 26, 1957.

The case involved scores of lawsuits, hearings and compromise settlements on claims that at one time totaled $3,166,525.

The documents show Parr, in his original bankruptcy petition, underrated the worth of his estate. He claimed assets of $53,216, not including exempt property valued at $74,569. The total disbursements by bankruptcy officials, however, amounted to $1,582,904.

Parr's statement of his liabilities, however, was nearer the claims finally allowed by bankruptcy referee James Easterling. Easterling allowed claims totaling $1,155,959. Parr set his liabilities at $1,925,093.

Parr's estimate of his liabilities included $600,000 in claims by the Internal Revenue Service. These were eventually reduced to $147,393. With this adjustment Parr's own list of liabilities dropped to 1,472,486, which his final net worth would have covered.

All but $52,753 of the allowed claims were paid in full, the records showed. This amount represented the loss suffered by 21 creditors with unsecured claims totaling $277,923.54. They were paid, in a final settlement Sept. 4, at the rate of 81.0186 per cent for a total of $225,169.77.

In addition, the estate paid liquidation expenses totaling $390,547.

Largest among these expenses was $217,500 paid to Oscar Spitz as attorney for receiver and trustee George Clower.

'Fruit Project' Set For Hospital

A&M annual "Fruit Project" for 1,200 patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Temple is set for Dec. 15 and 16.

Students from A&M Consolidated and Lincoln High Schools

faculty-staff members at A&M, and citizens of College Station will also participate.

Aggies traditionally give the apples and oranges they have at the Christmas dinner to the veterans. The campus dinner is set for Dec. 15.

An estimated 3,000 to 4,000 apples and oranges will be contributed in this manner.

P. L. (Pinkie) Downs Jr., official greeter for A&M, is coordinating the drive.

Harley D. Mitchell, recreation chief at the Temple hospital, will send a truck for the fruit Dec. 17.

Downs said the Bell County A&M Mothers Club already has obtained 1,200 plastic bags, and candy and nuts to go with the apples and oranges. Individual names of patients will be affixed to the bags.

ARMY COMMENDATION MEDAL . . . Sgt. Kenneth H. Truitt, right, reads certificate.

Army Sergeant Receives Medal Upon Retiring

Army M/Sgt. Kenneth H. Truitt received the Commendation Medal upon retiring with nearly 22 years of service, the last seven here. Col. D. L. Baker presented the medal.

The retired—effective Tuesday—sergeant plans to continue as Bryan-College Station agent for Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio and Waco newspaper, plus the regional edition of a national business paper.

Truitt is a Daingerfield High School graduate and among those present for the informal ceremony Monday afternoon were longtime friends from Daingerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Partin.

Jaycees To Help Families

Christmas is a time of giving and the Bryan-College Station Jaycees are giving their time and effort to the needy families of Bryan College Station.

Ridley Briggs, president of the local Jaycees, said that they are sponsoring three projects this year: A Christmas toy drive, shopping tour and a television auction.

Milton Daniels, chairman of the toy drive, said that the collection boxes are in downtown Bryan, Weingarten's, Townshire Shopping Center, Orr's Food Store at Ridgecrest and in front of the A&M Consolidated School. The last day for turning in toys is Dec. 16.

Pastors and school superintendents from all churches and schools have been asked to send in six to 12 names of needy families.

Charlie Maldwin, chairman of the shopping tour, said that the Jaycees will sponsor a shopping tour at Montgomery Wards so that needy children can go Christmas shopping. Each child will be given $5 for the tour.

There will also be an auction sponsored by the Jaycees on television from 3-6 p.m. Sunday, said Frank Brewer, chairman of the auction.
