

Ag Roundballers To Host Arlington State Saturday

The Aggie Cagers will host the Arlington State Rebels in their first home game of the season at 8 p.m. Saturday in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Arlington State dropped their opener to Baylor 103-85. The high scorer for the Rebels was Gary Tibbets who hit nine out of eleven from the floor and six out of eleven from the free throw line for a total of 24 points.

The Ags dropped their first game to Memphis State but triumphed over the University of Southern Mississippi, 83-70.

The Aggies were sparked by their ace center 6'9" John Beasley who tossed in 38 points. Paul Timmins also played an outstanding game.

A&M hit over 50% in both encounters. Their rebounding totals fell short in both contests, however. 8,700 watched the Memphis State tilt while a full house of nearly 4,000 was on hand for the Southern Mississippi duel.

Coach Shelby Metcalf will likely send the same starting five against the Rebels which he employed during the first two games.

The A&M lineup:

Center: 6'9" John Beasley
Guards: 6'4" Dickie Stringfellow and 5'11" Paul Timmins.
Forwards: 6'6" Bill Gasway, 6'6" Ken Norman.

The A&M Freshman basketball squad makes its season debut the road Monday night at Louisiana State University. This promises to be one of the Fish cage squads in several weeks.

Aggies Hammer USM, 83-70

By LANI PRESSWOOD
HATTIESBURG, MISS. — The tremendous shooting touch of big John Beasley and the playmaking of Paul Timmins paced the Aggies to a convincing 83-70 win over Southern Mississippi here Thursday night.

Beasley garnered 38 points and pulled down 20 rebounds in a performance which stunned an overflow crowd of close to 4,000. Timmins collected 15 points and dribbled circles around the Southern defenders all night.

The Southerners stayed close for a half and trailed by a single point at halftime. Beasley reeled off eleven straight points after intermission and within three minutes and 22 seconds had shot the Cadets into a ten-point lead.

USM never came closer than eight points after that. With 3:36 left, guard Dickie Stringfellow hit a driving layup which hiked the Ag margin to 17 points, the widest spread of the game.

Rain was falling out of the dark Mississippi night when the contest began. The packed house watched the Aggies race to a quick 6-0 lead at the start of the game.

With 15:12 left in the half, the Cadets had padded their advantage to 13-4. Then the Southerners began chipping away the Maroon lead. Bruce Miller sank a pair of free shots to knot the score at 26-26 with 13:03 showing on the clock.

The rest of the half was a nip and tuck affair. The score was tied three times and the lead changed hands twice. USM pulled ahead by one point with seven minutes to go for their only lead of the ball game. The halftime score was 41-40.

The second half was a different story. In it the Aggies flashed the form which carried them to the Southwest Conference crown last season.

Beasley's early spurt put the Southerners in a hole they were never able to climb out of. Last year's SWC Sophomore-of-the-Year was deadly with his long, soft jumpers. 24 of his 38 points came in the second half.

With four minutes left, the Cadets shifted into their stall game. They were ahead by 15 at the time.

The freeze was effective as the frantic Southerners were able to shave only two points off the Maroon lead.

Timmins, the fiery Aggie captain, was sharp and smooth as he quarterbacked the Cadets to their first win of the young season. The Ags dropped an 83-72 decision to Memphis State Tuesday night.

Stringfellow collected nine points and Bill Gasway contributed nine to the Aggie total. The steady Maroon forward also pulled down eight rebounds and held high scoring Gary Hannan to five points. Guard Gary Kochersperger paced the Southerners with 16.

The Cadets sank 50.8% of their shots from the field while USM made 30.8%. The Southerners out-rebounded A&M, 47-44.

Gasway fouled out late in the game, as did three Southerners. Guard Dick Rector required four stitches to patch up a cut eye incurred in the first half.

The first A&M home game of the season is set for Saturday night at G. Rollie White Coliseum. Arlington State's Rebels will furnish the opposition.

XII THE TOWN CRIER

He used to be the bearer of news—both good and bad. And he announced the merchandise available in the various places of business. Newspapers have long since replaced him.

He would cry the hour night and day for he was timekeeper to the town. Clocks and wrist-watches crowded him out of our life.

But when he announced the hour he liked to reassure his neighbors: "Tis three o'clock—and all's well!" Why has no one taken up this function in our modern world?

Probably because no one is certain that all is well. And because merely saying that all is well doesn't calm our fears or lighten our concern.

More and more we are coming to realize that our crucial need is spiritual. Men are seeking truth and power in the faith and worship of our churches. With each passing hour it becomes more evident that all will be well only when ALL discover God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
