

Aggies Try Cougars Saturday In Last Non-Conference Tilt

The A&M cagers will tangle with the University of Houston Saturday night in the rubber game of their 1964-65 series.

Each club has claimed home victories over the other this season and the Cougars will have the edge in that department for this third encounter. Site of the contest is Delmar Field House with tipoff time at 8:15.

Shelby Metcalf's Aggies are returning from a two-week layoff for final exams. Their last engagement was a smashing 93-55 verdict over the Rice Owls in Houston.

That win boosted the Cadet season slate to 9-4 and their conference record to 2-2. A&M is in a three-way tie for third place behind pacesetter Texas Tech and SMU.

In contrast, the Cougars have chalked up a 12-6 record thus far and have a Thursday night encounter with Baylor in Waco before the melee with the Aggies.

A&M inflicted one of the blenishes early in the season, a 74-67 drubbing in G. Rollie White Coliseum. The 'Coogs reversed this decision in the Bluebonnet Classic by taking a 59-49 verdict.

In that contest, Guy Lewis' crew played a deliberate, slow-paced game which successfully stymied the high octane Aggie offense. It's likely that the Maroons will see a different brand of ball Saturday night, though, if statistics mean anything.

U of H has surpassed the century mark in scoring in their last two meetings. They panted North Texas, 117-83, and then rocked TCU to the tune of 108-87.

Principal weapon in the Houston arsenal has been 5-11 guard Joe Hamood. The senior letterman has been scoring at a 15.6 clip. He is trailed by 6-2 forward Wayne Ballard with an 11.1 average and 6-4 forward Rich Apolskis at 10.5.

They will be joined in the starting lineup by 6-6 sophomore center Leary Lentz and 6-1 veteran guard Jack Margenthaler. Lentz owns an 8.2 average while Margenthaler has been scoring at an 8.1 clip.

The Aggies will combat this front line with John Beasley at center, Paul Timmins and Dickie Stringfellow at guards, and Ken Norman and Sonny Fethkenher at the forward slots.

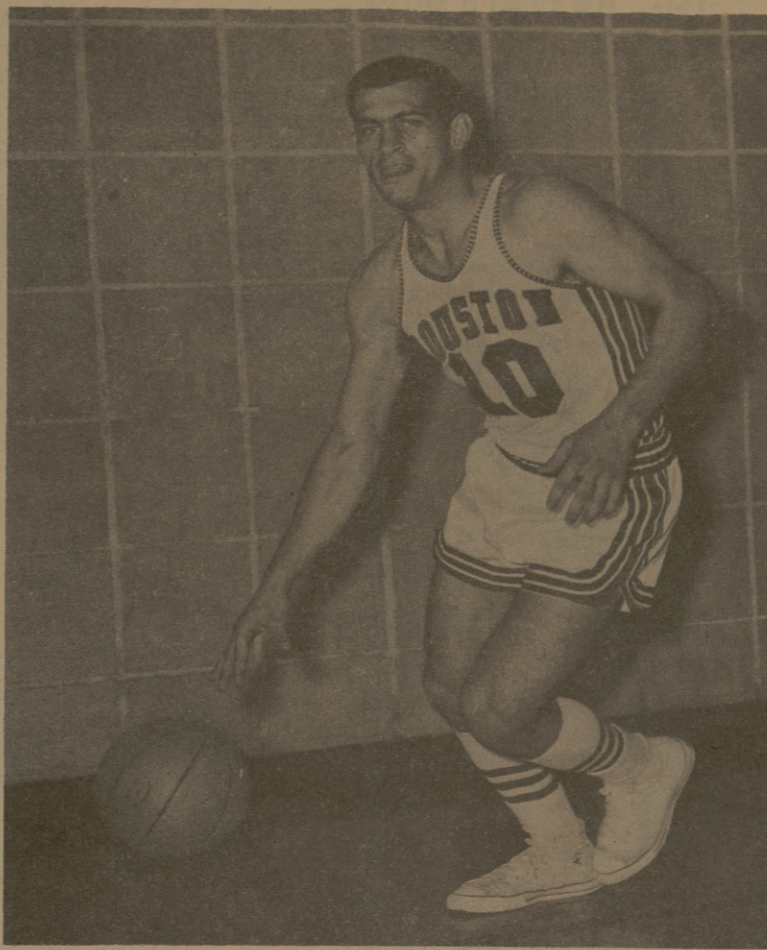

Three out of this quintet rank in the top ten of Southwest Conference scoring. Beasley is firing at a 21.2 clip, Norman owns a 13.9 average and Timmins is close on his heels at 13.8.

Stringfellow has a 7.8 mean while the late-arriving Fethkenher is at 3.1.

As a team the Aggies are shooting at a 45.8 percentage while averaging 78.3 per outing. Their opponents have been held to 70.3 points a game.

2500 tickets will go on sale at the gate preceding Saturday's tilt. Delmar Field House is located in the northern section of Houston, on the Hempstead Highway.

A preliminary match pits the Houston Kittens against Wharton Junior College at 6:15.

Ag Cindermen Set For First Indoor Meet

Six members of the A&M track team will compete in the fourth annual Lubbock Indoor Meet Saturday beginning at 8 p.m. It is the first meet on the Texas indoor track circuit.

Olympian shotputter Randy Matson has been declared ineligible for the meet since he was not enrolled in college the past semester. The Aggie sophomore will throw the iron ball in an exhibition.

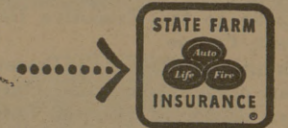

Five other Cadets are due to compete in the University Division. Sophomore Mike Shrider is entered in the high jump. The New Jersey native won the SWC freshman title last season.

Coach Charles Thomas is sending a mile-relay foursome composed of Robert Martin, Arie Britt, Larry McGough, and Gilbert Smith.

Martin is a senior while Britt and McGough are fresh from the ranks of last season's conference champion Fish squad. Smith is a transfer from Blinn Junior College in Brenham where he clocked a 9.3 in the 100-yard dash.

Schoolboy Stars Bound For A&M

Three schoolboy football standouts have declared their intention to attend A&M University on football scholarships. Two are local area stars and the third hails from Galena Park.

The Galena Park prize is Charlie Riggs, who was voted first team all-state honors in Class 4A at quarterback. Riggs' passing arm helped carry the Yellow Jackets to the 4A finals against Garland.

He completed 111 out of 198 passes this past season. His aerials accounted for 2,068 yards and 30 touchdowns. The 5-7, 155-pounder was named to the Scholastic Magazine High School All-American squad.

The versatile Riggs also handled the Galena Park place-kicking chores and competes in baseball and basketball. He cannot sign a letter-of-intent until after baseball season if he chooses to perform in the spring sport his senior year.

In a story which appeared in Tuesday's Houston Post, Riggs was quoted as saying, "There are several reasons I picked A&M. But the most important one is that I want to be part of the new, winning tradition that coach (Gene) Stallings will build."

He was recruited by A&M assistant coach Don Watson.

Tackle Rolf Krueger of Bryan and Center-linebacker Carl Gough of A&M Consolidated also announced their college choices earlier in the week.

Krueger is a 6-3, 220-pound all-district performer who was named to the Waco Tribune-Herald's 1964 Super Centex team.

He is the younger brother of former A&M All-American Tackle Charles Krueger, now playing professional ball with the San Francisco 49ers.

The rugged lineman was a three-year letterman for the Broncos. He was selected to both the offensive and defensive all-district teams and was sought by several SWC schools as well as Alabama.

Gough is a 6-1, 175-pounder who was named to the AAA-10 all-district team at the linebacking position. Described as a "hitter," the three-port performer also excelled as a blocker.

February 9 is the earliest date that SWC schools are allowed to sign schoolboys to letters-of-intent.

ARE YOU READY?

There can be no harmony without you! Unless everyone joins in together, determined to make this performance on life's stage the best one possible, the result will always be sour and discordant.

Perhaps, when we take an honest look at ourselves, we discover such things as temper or prejudice, jealousy or despair standing in the way of our personal happiness. And when we are unhappy, we feel out of tune with the world.

How can these miseries be overcome? God Himself will help us, if we ask Him. It is His intention that His children live in harmony and contentment, and He will show us the way.

Bring your problem to church this Sunday, and offer it to Him in prayer. He loves you greatly, He understands you perfectly, and only He can help you to regain the song of joy that belongs in your heart.
