

Aggies Pelt Porkers, 82 - 79

Timmerman Sparkles In Overtime Victory

By LANI PRESSWOOD
Sports Editor
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—“We’ve got life.”

With these words Coach Shelby Metcalf summed up the general A&M feeling after the Aggies had edged past Arkansas in an overtime cliffhanger, 82-79.

The Porkers held a five-point lead with 2:12 to go and a three-point edge with 40 seconds left. A frantic short jumper by Tim Timmerman with 15 seconds left deadlocked the score at 71-71 and sent the thriller into a five-minute overtime period.

A&M raced to a 78-71 lead in the post-mortem and hung on for the crucial victory. The Cadets now own a 3-2 record and are in a four-way tie for second place behind the Baylor-vanquished Red Raiders of Texas Tech.

A resounding 51-29 rebound advantage enabled the Aggies to subdue the tenacious Razorbacks. The Hogs ran a tantalizingly slow offense coupled with an aggressive defense to stay with the taller Aggies. It was a great team effort by a club battling desperately to remain in contention for the Southwest Conference crown.

The victory was accomplished despite a rash of medical problems which developed during the contest.

Timmerman was plagued the entire game with an uncooperative stomach and was taking pills at intervals. Starting guard Dick Rector strained his right knee and was forced out of the game in its early minutes. Captain Paul Timmerman injured his head when a Porker careened into him after he had tried to deflect a long pass.

The lead changed hands 14 times and was tied on four occasions. The widest Hog lead was six at 25-19 while the Aggies mounted a seven-point lead at 78-71 and 80-73.

The first half ended 38-37 in favor of A&M. It was marked by slow but solid basketball. There were few turnovers and high shooting percentages.

A&M held the lead until 7:52 when J. D. McConnell meshed a pair of charity shots for a 55-54 Arkansas edge. The lead seasawed until the Porkers spurred to a five-point lead which was overcome only in the fading seconds of regulation play. The Razorbacks tried to freeze the ball but were unsuccessful against the ballhawking Ags.

The Cadets outscored Arkansas, 11-8, in the overtime. Six of the Maroon total came from John Beasley, who led all scorers with 27. At 1:18 in the overtime, Bill Gasway dropped in a pair of free throws which gave the Aggies a five-point lead and put victory out of the reach of the struggling Hogs.

Timmerman may have played his best game in an Aggie uniform. He hit on 7 of 11 field goals, scored 17 points, and hauled in 8 rebounds.

Ken Norman contributed ten points, Dickie Stringfellow and Timmins each had eight. Stringfellow, a guard, finished with nine rebounds.

Ricky Sugg had 22 and Orval Cook 19 to pace the Porkers, who shot 43 per cent from the field and made 29 of 32 free throws. A&M had five more field goals and wound up with a 46 per cent mark. Their free shot record was 22 of 31.

The crowd in Barnhill Fieldhouse was surprisingly subdued, except for brief flurries. It provided a marked contrast to the enthusiastic greeting about 350 Aggies gave to the returning cagers at Easterwood Airport. The reception put the frosting on the victorious night.

In the dressing room immediately after the game, Timmins said, “We had to win this one. It was just a sweet victory. We’re getting our momentum up now.”

A jubilant Shelby Metcalf added, “Winning is happiness. Beating Texas is the ultimate happiness. We’re going to take them one at a time.”

Bob Veale of the Pittsburgh Pirates fanned 15 Milwaukee Braves in Forbes Field, Pittsburgh last September.
