Bell Telephone Researcher To Visit Here Dr. E. E. David Jr., director of the Computing and Information Research Center of Bell Telephone Laboratories Inc., will be a busy man when he visits A&M March

4 and 5. David will speak at 4 p.m. March 4 on "Digital Computing as an Engineering Enterprize and its Implications for Engineering Education." At 10 a.m. Friday, March 5, he will discuss "Unusual Applications of Computers," and at 1:30 p.m. the same day his topic will be "Engineering Concepts for the High School Program."

Primary purpose of David's visit is to address the Annual Spring Conference of the Junior Engineering Technical Society March 5. He will present results of a study made by a group of educators last summer at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Briefly, they decided certain engineering concepts can be taught in high schools.

This is the week to do something about your future!

This week the Bell System recruiting team will be on your campus.

They're here to talk to people who want to put their educations to work in the fast-growing, fast-moving communications business. Maybe that includes you.

We're interested in engineering, business and liberal arts seniors who have done well and who expect to keep on doing well.

We want people who are acquiring the habit of success. We can strengthen it.

The Bell System is where people find solutions to exciting problems. Bell System companies are equal opportunity employers.

If you haven't done so already, you owe it to yourself to find out what the Bell System can offer you. Sign up now at the Placement Office for an appointment with our representatives.

This might be the week your future comes into focus.
