

Aggies Host Hogs Tomorrow

BILL GASWAY ... hit 22 against Rice.

A band of hot Razorbacks from the Ozarks charges into Aggieland Saturday night for a battle which could mean a SWC first division berth for the victor.

Both clubs are fresh from impressive triumphs which brought their league records to 4-5. Tuesday night the Cadets raced past Rice, 104-93, while the Porkers were taking a 78-73 upset from Baylor.

The Razorbacks annually produce one of the most physically rugged quintets on the A&M schedule. Aggressive defense and deadly outside shooting have become Arkansas trademarks under veteran mentor Glen Rose.

An intricate pattern offense is another longtime feature of the Porker attack. It's an offense which, when successful, results in a number of easy buckets.

The effectiveness of it thus far is seen in the Hog statistics. They are shooting at a .431 clip, close to the school record. Another statistical item of note is a .756 mark from the charity line, which places the Razorbacks in the nation's top 10 in that department.

The Porkers are well balanced and have no superstar. Leading scorer is 6-1 guard Ricky Sugg with a 14.4 mean. Other double digit performers are 6-5 forwards

J. D. McConnell and John Talking-ton.

Rounding out the starting five are 6-5 Center Orval Cook and 6-4 Guard Tommy Rowland. The Hogs don't have a single senior starter.

In an earlier encounter Shelby Metcalf's Aggies edged the Porkers, 82-79, in an overtime thriller in Fayetteville. The swifter Cadets used strong rebounding and some last-minute heroics to pull it out of the fire.

Metcalf will likely start the same five which blew down the Rice defenses. Captain Paul Timmins and sophomore comer Dick Rector will open at the guard slots. Seniors Ken Norman and Bill Gasway will line up at the forward positions while 6-9 John Beasley will man the center spot.

Beasley is bombing the nets at a 24.6 average in league play and continues to lead the SWC pack. He has drilled 43 and 37 points in his last two ball games and is threatening to break more than one conference scoring record.

This is the next-to-last chance Aggie fans have to see Beasley in action at home this season. A meeting with SMU Feb. 23 winds up the A&M home slate.

Three other circuit contests are on tap for Saturday night. SMU and Texas will be trying to snap a second place deadlock in Austin while TCU battles Baylor in Waco. The loop-leading Texas Tech Red Raiders have a Houston engagement with the Rice Owls.

Texas Relays Plan To Feature Matson

AUSTIN (AP)—Officials of the Texas Relays may move the shot put ring to directly in front of the stands to give track fans a better look at A&M's giant weightman Randy Matson when he performs here this year.

Matson appears to be the top attraction of the April 2-3 meet.

Jack Patterson, Texas track coach and relays director, mentioned moving the ring when he announced the rebate system up on which the meet was founded is being dropped.

CBS Defends Yank Purchase

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. Frank Stanton, Columbia Broadcasting System president, said Thursday CBS bought the New York Yankees because it was a good investment, not to gain unfair advantage over rivals in bidding for baseball broadcasts.

Stanton, testifying before the Senate Antitrust Subcommittee, said the other nine American League teams wouldn't permit

CBS Defends Yank Purchase

CBS to get away with any bid rigging, and CBS didn't plan to try.

He said CBS had been looking around for profitable investments which would not be subject to Federal Communications Commission licensing.

The $11.2 million invested in the Yankees, Stanton said, represents only 2 to 3 per cent of the CBS capital investment.

College Point-Shaving Scandal Stuns Basketball World Again

SEATTLE (AP)—Two Seattle University basketball players were arrested Wednesday night and another was implicated Thursday in a point-shaving scandal that reportedly netted one of the athletes a mere $130 and the other two nothing.

A young Chicago tavern owner, a friend of one of the players, also was arrested in the case, involving Seattle's Jan. 22 game here against the University of Idaho.

Charlie Williams, team captain and high scorer who is described by Coach Bob Boyd as the "finest guard I ever had," and Peller Phillips were arrested by the FBI and later expelled from the University. Peller often started at the other guard position.

L. J. Wheeler, a reserve center, was expelled because he allegedly knew of the incident and failed to report it.

Leo Casale, 24, was arrested in Chicago.

Williams and Phillips, both 21-year-old seniors, were released under $1,000 personal recognizance bonds. They were ordered to appear March 1 to enter pleas.

Casale's bond was set at $25,000 and his hearing was continued until Feb. 23 to await papers. He was released on a recognizance bond.

The arrests were made by the FBI on charges of bribery and conspiracy to affect the outcome of the Idaho game, won by Seattle 89-72. The gambling point spread favored the Chieftans by one more—18.

They were believed to be the first arrests made under a federal law enacted last June which covers sports gambling offenses.

The FBI refused to disclose how it uncovered the alleged conspiracy and the involved players would not comment.

The Rev. Timothy Cronin, assistant to the university president, said Phillips admitted meeting Casale in Chicago during a road trip by the Seattle team.

It was reported Casale gave Phillips $130, but no money went to the two other players.

Prep Football Prospers

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas schoolboy football was its greatest in 1964.

There were 942 schools playing the game. They drew 8,250,000 fans for their 5,000 contests.

Even the playoffs were record-breakers. The four state championship games attracted 65,000, with the Class AAAA final between Garland and Galena Park packing in 35,000 of them.

Sounds astronomical and it sure is.

But you just haven't seen anything yet.

The 1965 season will be the biggest in the 46-year history of the Texas Interscholastic League. There will be 953 schools playing 5,100 games with 8,500,000 fans to watch them.

All this growth has fooled even the Interscholastic League folks. They figured several years ago that the number of schools would start decreasing because of the many consolidations of smaller schools.

But the big schools increased more than the little schools decreased.

This year there will be 152 schools in Class AAAA, seven more than last year. The newcomers are Lubbock Coronado, Irving MacArthur, Houston Madison, Houston Sterling, Austin Reagan, Corpus Christi King and El Paso Coronado.

Class AA adds one—Bogata

Riverview. Class A lost Bogata and Talco. Class B ed three—Anthony, Balmora and Socorra—but lost one man added three but Class C and Six-Man remained the same.

Back when there was only one class, it was claimed that competition was unequal more divisions were created. Then there came the consolidation that districts were getting big, so more classes were created.

The growth of schoolboy ball is causing dilemmas—the delightful kind—Texas to know it has the world's best football program.
