Exhibits List Is Released

A list of Spring exhibits and guest lecturers for the A&M School of Architecture has been released by Edward J. Romieniec, professor and chairman of the School of Architecture. Two exhibits are scheduled for March: "Visual Design in Action" by Ladislav Sutner, a New York designer; and "Calvert," by Roy Pledger, a Calvert, photographer. "Graphic Art" by Don Page Associates, New York architects, and a display of photographs by Roland Chatham of Bryan are scheduled for April. May exhibits include "Transportation" by Hugh Evelyn of London, England, and "Student Work" by the A&M School of Architecture. A schedule of lecturers and critics for the Spring Semester includes:

Battalion Church News

Mark To Be Studied
 A study of the gospel of Mark will follow supper beginning at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Presbyterian Student Center. The program is co-sponsored by the First Christian Church and The Presbyterian Student Center.

Widders To Speak
 The Unitarian Fellowship is to hear Mr. Loren Widders, president of the Unitarian Fellowship in Waco, speak on "Truth Or Consequence" at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Creed Discussion Set
 A discussion of "Beliefs of the Methodist Church" will explore the meaning of parts of The Apostle's Creed at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at the Wesley Foundation. The phrase "I believe in . . . the holy catholic church; the communion of saints . . ." will be highlighted in Sunday's program. Mrs. C. H. Groneman will assist.

Arabs Set Ball
 Tickets for the Arab Club banquet and ball are now being sold by club officers. The banquet is set for March 27 in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom. Khalid Babaa, director of the Arab Center in Dallas will be the banquet's main speaker.

Prewitt Elected
 John I. Prewitt, Temple junior, was elected chairman of the South Texas Newman Club Congress at the organization's annual meeting in Houston. Father John D. Frizelle was named Province Chaplain at the meeting. Eleven students were present at the congress to discuss the theme "Student Responsibility in Society." Over 200 colleges and universities attended the conference. Next year's meeting of the congress will be held at the Ramada Inn in College Station.

Kutach To Speak
 W. D. Kutach of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology will speak at a Newman Club meeting following services in St. Mary's Chapel at 7:20 p.m. Wednesday. Programs planned by the Newman Club for the semester include guest speakers every other week. On alternate Wednesdays discussions will be conducted on topics of current interest. A discussion of birth control is scheduled in the near future.
