

NOTES and QUOTES

Wayne Prescott, one of the top ranked schoolboy tennis players in Texas, has announced that he will attend Texas A&M next fall on a tennis scholarship. A&M net coach Omar Smith said the 6-1, 165-pounder from Houston Memorial, is a prize prospect . . .

It'll be a busy weekend for Randy Matson, the big Aggie sophomore, in the shotput ring. He'll leave A&M at 6:20 a.m. Friday on a flight to Detroit, Mich., where he'll compete in the NCAA Indoor meet at 8 p.m. Then he'll depart Detroit at 10 a.m. Saturday on a jet for Dallas and will get on an Aggie charter in Dallas at 3 p.m. en route to Laredo where he'll throw the shot in the Border Olympics at 7 p.m. Saturday. He'll miss the discuss event in the Border Olympics . . .

The Bryan - College Station Jaycees are sponsoring the quadrangular track meet here the night of April 9 among SMU, Baylor, Texas and the Aggies . . . Aggie basketball coach Shelby Metcalf speaks at Texas City's High School banquet next Monday (March 15) . . .

John Beasley scored 254 points in his last seven SWC games this season . . . for a 36.3 average. In the first seven SWC games he had a 141-point total . . .

SMU's Doc Hayes wanted to stage the basketball playoff game with Texas in Aggie's G. Rolie White Coliseum . . . but Longhorn coach Hal Bradley would have no part of that . . . "It would be like a homecourt for SMU," he quipped . . .

Spring football drills open at A&M Tuesday, March 23 . . . The Aggies will work four days a week, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, barring bad weather . . . It'll all end with a spring game Saturday, May 1 . . .

Bob Giegengack is in his 19th year as coach of the Yale track team. He formerly coached at Fordham.
