Aggies Carve Up Bevo, 12-4

Cadets Hosting Baylor Today For SWC Lead

By LANI PRESSWOOD
Sports Editor
Orange domination of this year's A&M-UT athletic series ended in Austin's Clark Field Saturday.

The Aggie baseballers blasted Steer pitching for 17 hits in racing to a 12-4 victory in the SWC opener for both clubs.
Hurler Steve Hillhouse continued to cast his spell over Texas hitters. The junior lefty notched his third victory over the Steers in his varsity career against no defeats.

Hillhouse went the route Saturday, giving up seven hits, striking out eight and walking five. He had a three-hit shutout going into the ninth inning.

Tom Chandler's crew faces Baylor for the conference lead Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Bryan's Travis Park. Righthander Billy Crain will be on the mound for the Aggies against the Bears, who shut out Rice in their opener, 8-0.

Leading the Cadet batting barrage Saturday were Billy Crain and Mike McClure. Crain rapped four hits, McClure three, and they each drove in three runs.

Singles by Alan Koonce, Crain, and Lance Cobb produced the first Aggie run in the third inning. Catcher Ed Beckner followed in the next frame by clouting a 375-foot solo home run.

Singles by Fred Carlton and Crain and a pair of Texas errors in the fifth inning produced the fourth Cadet run. In the next frame the Aggies began to break the game wide open.

Neil Thompson led off with a walk and then Koonce cracked a single to left field. With two men out, Cobb came to the plate. The second sacker crashed a two-run triple which landed on top of the "goat cliff." McClure then rapped a single to score Cobb.

In the seventh inning Texas pitching came apart at the seams.

Two walks, a wild pitch and a hit batsman were combined with only two Aggie singles to produce four more runs.

A&M ended their scoring in the eighth inning. Koonce drew a walk and Crain drove a triple to the cliff to drive him in.

Texas parlayed four safeties into four runs in the bottom of the ninth. Don Johnson's triple brought in the first two tallies. Ed Denman drove in the last two with a double to left-center.

Texas used four pitchers in a vain effort to quell the red-hot Aggie bats. Starter Robert Collier absorbed the loss. He lasted five innings, giving up four runs and ten hits.

A capacity crowd of 3,200 showed up for the start of the game but few were still around after the sixth inning. Texas had entered the game undefeated.

Crain and McClure weren't the only Aggies who padded their batting averages Saturday. Thompson, Koonce, Cobb, and Carlton all had two hits while Beckner and Dennis Williams each chalked up one.

The Aggie line-up for the Baylor clash will consist of Beckner (.083) behind the plate; Malitz (.125) at first; Cobb (.300) on second; Williams (.333) at short; McClure (.412) at third; and Koonce (.316), Thompson (.286) and Carlton (.438) in the outfield.

The Aggies are batting .295 as a team and the pitching staff owns a composite ERA of 2.9.

The 4-1 Aggies, defending SWC champions, will play three home games this week. In addition to the Baylor tilt, the Cadets will host Texas Lutheran at 3 p. m. Thursday and Rice at 2 p. m. Saturday.

The Past And The Future
New Aggie grid recruit Wendell Housley is shown with all time A&M football great John David Crow. Housley signed with A&M Friday. The Richardson halfback is 6-2, 205 and he runs the 100 in 9.8. Aggie assistant coach Elmer Smith says of Housley, "he could be another Crow." Crow is the only Aggie gridder to ever win the Heisman Trophy.

Matson Wins, Aggies 3rd In Soggy Border Olympics

A&M's track team gathered a total of 44 1/2 points to take third place in the university division of the 33rd Annual Border Olympics in Laredo over the weekend.

Rice won the division with 53 1/2 points and Abilene Christian was second with 49 1/2. Behind the Aggies came Houston, Baylor, SMU, Texas, North Texas, TCU and Texas Tech.

The Aggies took firsts in the 440-yard relay, 100-yard dash, the high jump and shot put to spearhead their scoring. Abilene Christian also had four first places and Rice had three.

Randy Matson was the only bright spot in a day of rain, wet grounds and soggy performances. He broke the meet record of 58-9 1/2 set by A&M's Danny Roberts last year with a 63-7 toss. The night before he had won the NCAA Indoor Championship Shot Put with a 63-2 1/2 heave. Roger Orrell of ACC was second in the event at Laredo with a 56-8 1/2 effort.

Billy Schmidt, Gilbert Smith, Robert Martin and James White teamed up for a 41.4 time to win the 440-yard relay. SMU was second with 41.5 and Rice came in third with 41.7.

In the 100-yard dash White won it in 9.9 and Gilbert Smith tied Ken Coleman of Texas Tech at 10.5 for fifth. A three-way tie at 10 flat between SMU, Baylor and Houston occupied second through fourth place.

Gilbert Smith tied Jim Bankhead of SMU at 22 flat to take second in the 220-yard dash. Gale Harrison of ACC won it in 21.8 and Wayne Brandt of Baylor was fourth.

Aggie firsts were rounded out by Mike Schrider in the high jump with an effort of 6-4 3/4. David Segrest of Texas was second and Lynn Morris of Rice finished third.

The discus event was one of the meet's closest. A&M's David Glover was third with a heave of 167-9 1/2. First place was captured by Orrell with a 198-3 spin. Jim Lancaster of Baylor was second.

In the broad jump A&M's Bob Brown was third with a 22-2 leap. Ron Linscomb of North Texas copped first place at 23-2 1/2. Butch Reed of Houston was second at 22-9 1/2.

Don Kooser of A&M and Craig Fox of Abilene Christian had identical times of 55.1 seconds in the 440-yard hurdles to tie for fourth. Bobby May of Rice won the event in 53.6 seconds. Jimmy Wilkerson of Rice was second and Cyler Thompson of Houston was third.

The remainder of the Aggie points came in the javelin throw. Dan Meadows took second with a throw of 187 feet and Donny Ayers was fourth at 179-10 1/2. Ricky Jacobs of Rice was first with a 198-3 toss.

The Aggies didn't place in the 440-yard dash, the 880-yard run, the mile run, the 3-mile run and the 120-yard high hurdles.

A new record was set in the pole vault. Warren Brattlof of Rice vaulted 15-6 1/2 to break the record of 15-4 set by Rice's Fred Hansen in 1963. Only three men competed in the event, the other two being Mark King of Texas and Wayne Fitzgerald of North Texas State.

A&M Soccermen Suffer Setback In Semis Match

The Aggie soccer team came within a couple of kicks of gaining a berth in the state championship game as they went down to Sangerbund 3-2 Sunday afternoon in Houston.

The Aggie squad built up a 2-0 lead in the first half on tallies by Carlos Matamoros and Mauricio Martinez. In the second half, the Houston team came alive as the Aggies' previous week's injuries began to take their toll.

Jasson Gryzagoridis, captain of the A&M team, said "Injuries started hurting us in the second half; we sort of ran out of gas."

The Aggies played in the same league with Sangerbund during the regular season, defeating them once and tying them once. A&M was undefeated in its other conference games. They went on to win their quarterfinal match, but suffered numerous injuries in that game.

The win by Sangerbund will entitle them to play International of San Antonio next Sunday for the Texas Cup state championship game. The winner of that game will go to the national tourney in St. Louis.

Netters Split Pair, Golfers Take 3rd

The Aggie netters of Omar Smith won a smashing victory over Louisiana State Saturday after making a determined but futile effort against Pan American Friday.

Meanwhile the Aggie golf team was seeking its fortune in the Border Olympics Golf Tournament. The Ags managed to finish third.

The netters blanked the Tigers 6-0 behind the leadership of their new number-one man, Albert Aldrich. He played the second position against Pan American and defeated Sherwood Stewart 6-3, 4-6; 7-5. He teamed up with Luis Rojas to beat Detyl Nitsche and Stewart 6-3 and 2-1 when Nitsche went out with leg cramps at that point.

In Saturday's action the Aggies were in complete control. Aldrich took straight sets from Dave Roemer, the Tigers' number one man, 6-2 and 6-1. The Aggie domination continued as Rojas blasted David Longmire 6-3 and 6-0 and Ray Salazar pounded Joseph Hubbard 6-2 and 7-5.

Doug Sassman completed the singles rout by downing Fred Semineau 7-5 and 6-0.

Fish Try Baylor In SWC Opener

A&M's freshmen baseballers open SWC play Tuesday at Waco against the Baylor Cubs and righthander Ken Perrin of Sherman will be on the hill for the Fish.

The Fish were slated to play Texas here last Saturday but wet grounds caused that one to be postponed. It was reset as part of a doubleheader against the Texas freshmen in Austin May 7.

Coach John Crain is expected to start the following for the Fish against Baylor:

Joe Staples behind the plate, Gary Moon on first, Richard Rimato on second, James Heartwell on short, Lou Camilli on third, Bob Delery in leftfield, Mike Wood in centerfield and Rick Schwartz in rightfield.

In doubles competition the same one-sided story was told on the courts. Aldrich and Rojas easily moved by Roemer and Longmire in two 6-0 decisions. Sassman and Dean Dyer completed the shutout by beating Hubbard and Semineau 6-2 and 6-3.

In the Aggies' 4-3 loss to Pan American, Dyer had the Cadets' other victory with 6-3 and 7-5 decisions over Fred Berli.

Pan American gained their points on wins by Nitsche over Rojas 15-13, 4-6, 8-6; Lornie Kuhle over Sassman 6-1, 0-6, 9-7; George Kon over Salazar 7-5 and 6-2, and in the doubles competition Kon and Kuhle defeated Sassman and Dyer 6-2 and 6-4.

In the golf tournament, the Cadets won by 44 strokes over second-place Texas Christian. Houston had a total of 1,138, 14 under par, while TCU had 1,182.

The Aggies were only 7 strokes out of second and 51 off the winning pace at 1,189.

Chess Tourney Sends 4 Victors To State Finals

The MSC Chess Committee sponsored the San Jacinto Open chess tournament for the second year in a row and attracted thirty-five of the strongest players in the state to the A&M campus over the weekend.

This tournament qualifies four Gulf coast area players to the state championship playoff next November. Eric Bone, a former state champion from Baytown, won the tournament and first qualifying position by winning his first four games and drawing in the last round.

His 4 1/2 game score was matched by George H. Smith, editor of the Sunday Houston Chronicle chess column, who placed second on the breaking points. They both collected trophies and divided $130 in cash prizes.
