School Aid Bill In Usual Conflict

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's $1.3 billion school aid legislation became embroiled Wednesday in the church-state issue that has sent many similar bills down to defeat. The bill would make $1 billion available to public school agencies for special programs designed to benefit poor children from both public and private schools.

COEDS
All coeds who wish to have their pictures appear in the "Aggieland" '65 should have their portraits made at the Aggieland Studio before April 17.
