

Aggie Cindermen Take Third Place In Corpus Christi

The A&M trackmen chased Rice and ACC home in the Corpus Christi Relays over the weekend, but easily outdistanced the rest of the SWC ranking up 60 points.

Pacing the third-place finish was perennial winner Randy Matson, who officially broke the collegiate shot mark with a 66-3/4 effort. It was his finest official outdoor throw since his 66-3/4 heave in the 1964 Olympics.

The 66-8/16 throw he registered in a dual meet with Baylor this spring did not count because the field was uneven. The previous NCAA record was 65-10/16, held by Dallas Long.

Matson also set a Corpus Christi meet record in the discus, hurling the platter 186-11. The old mark of 175-10 belonged to Baylor's Jim Lancaster.

The Cadet thin-clads picked up two other first places, in the high jump and the javelin. Mike Schrider continued his winning ways with a 6-4 leap and Dan Meadows set an all-time personal high of 213-9 in the spear toss.

Ace sophomore James White was nipped by Baylor's Wayne Brandt in both sprint events. White brought in a 9.7 100 and was clocked in a 21.6 220. Brandt is the only performer who has beaten White during the outdoor season.

White also anchored the Aggie sprint relay foursome, which came in second with a 41.4 reading. Rice won the even in 41.1. Leadoff sprinter Buster Mason suffered a cramp and handed off to No. 2 man Ted Nelson ten yards behind the leader.

Nelson, Gilbert Smith, and White almost made up the difference but couldn't quite catch the speedy Owls.

The A&M mile relay team whipped to their best clocking of the season, a 3:14.4, but it was only good for fourth place. Rice blazed in with a 3:10.5 to capture top honors.

Quartermiler Ted Nelson chased Rice's Jimmy Ellington to the tape in his specialty, registering a 47.5 time. Ellington had a 47.1 but most observers didn't feel they were that far apart.

A&M picked up seven points in the broad jump. Bob Brown finished second with a 21-9/16 leap and Dan Meadows was third with a 21-9/16 leap and Dan Meadows was third with a 21-3/4 effort.

Donny Ayers continued to improve in the javelin, picking up a fourth place with a 180-5 throw. Don Smith was also a fourth-place finisher, clocking a 15:05.7 in the three-mile run.

Maroon Linksmen Corral Mustangs

The A&M golfers began their quest of a SWC title with a 4 1/2-1 1/2 victory over the SMU Mustangs Saturday on the A&M course.

Sophomore Lee McDowell shot an even par 70 for the low individual score of the day. The Baytown performer defeated SMU's Tommy Culp one-up.

McDowell also teamed with Ronnie Tomas in the doubles to give three-and-one victory over Culp and Steve Summers.

Tomas trimmed Summers by the same three-and-one score to give the Cadets another singles victory. Jeff Andrick and Doug Dyer both halved their matches, with Albin Johnson and Buster Brown respectively. The two Aggies also halved their doubles match with the same pair.

This weekend Henry Ransom's Aggies journey to Houston for the All-American Tournament.

Stallings Holds 1st Scrimmage

Halfback Jim Stabler of Dallas scored three touchdowns and quarterback Harry Ledbetter scored once as the Aggies finished their first week of spring practice with a controlled scrimmage in Kyle Field Saturday.

Head Coach Gene Stallings said the thing he liked best of all was the way the offensive unit came back late in the workout to score twice from within the 20-yard line.

He said he couldn't tell which individuals looked good until after he studied movies made of the scrimmage but added, "From what I saw, Mike Phillips made a couple of good plays at defensive halfback, Ledbetter looked good running at quarterback and Robert Cortez and Joe Wellborn got in a few good licks at their linebacker posts. Also Dude McLean caught a couple of good passes and Ronnie Lindsey ran well at fullback a few times."

It was the Aggies' third workout of spring training. They'll resume action Tuesday afternoon.

"The biggest job we have is to teach our youngsters what it takes to win," Stallings said. "They already know a whole lot more about it now than when we started last Wednesday.

"I expect them to improve each day, both individually and as a team, and I believe they will."

Stabler's first touchdown came on the end of a 55-yard pass play with quarterback Eddie McLaughan doing the throwing. Stabler's other two tallies were on four and two-yard bursts over tackle.

Ledbetter scored his touchdown on a 20-yard keeper around right end.

The defensive unit halted the offensive group once on the one-yard line after a pass from McLaughan to McLean had gained 50 yards and set up a first and goal on the one.

The first offensive unit had McLean, Ted Sparling and John Poss at the ends, Jack Pyburn and Jim Wickerham at the tackles, Tom Murrah, Mark Weaver and Rod Moss at the guards, Jim Singleton at center, McLaughan and Ledbetter at quarterback, Stabler, Rusty Harris and Dan Westerfield at the halves and Bubber Collins and Ronnie Lindsey at fullback.

The first defensive unit contained Ricky Whately and Ed Breeding at ends, John Nilson at tackles, Don Koehn at guard, Robert Cortez, Joe Wellborn, Jerry Kachitk and Ken Caffey at linebackers, Jerry Nichols, Dan Schneider and Charles LaGrange in the secondary.

The Maroon gridders resume practice Tuesday afternoon and will work out Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday. Another scrimmage is on tap for Saturday afternoon. The workouts begin between 3 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

They will culminate in the annual Maroon-White game at 7:30 p.m. May 1 in Kyle Field.

A&M Baseballers On Upswing After Chalking Up 2 Triumphs

The Aggie baseballers boosted their SWC and season records by trouncing Texas Christian 8-4 Saturday afternoon in Travis Park and then blasting Houston 13-4 in Houston Monday.

The Ags produced their eight runs against TCU with 11 hits, including three straight doubles in the seventh inning, and eight walks. Defensively the Cadets were aided by pitcher Steve Hillhouse who struck out seven men in his seven and one-third innings. He allowed only four hits and one run to cross the plate in winning his third game of the season.

The Frogs held a 3-1 lead after the third inning, and until the Ags broke loose in the fifth, it seemed that neither team would be able to change the situation. The Froggies gained their advantage when their first three batters in the second inning reached base on two walks and a single.

Tommy Chiles struck out the next two batters to relieve the pressure a little. Then TCU third-sacker Ronnie McClain poked a base hit into right field, scoring all three runners. Hillhouse was brought on in relief and retired the side on a foul pop fly.

In Houston the Ags exploded for 12 hits, including three home runs and two triples, to completely swamp the Cougars on their home grounds.

After gaining one run in the first, Ed Gardner hit a two-run homer over the left field wall. His feat was matched in the third inning by Alan Koonce, giving the A&M squad a 5-2 advantage.

In the fourth inning the Aggies boosted their lead by four runs when Crain drove in a run with a fly ball to center his first time up. The ninth Aggie run was scored when Koonce crossed the plate on an error in the same frame.

The final Aggie tally came in the ninth inning when Fred Carlton pinch hit a home run for Malitz.

Houston was never really in the ball game, although they did get 11 hits. They were in the hole 9-2 in the fourth inning when they scored on an error. This was their total scoring effort until the seventh inning, when they got one run on one hit.

Aggie hitting was paced by Arrington and Koonce, who both went three for five. Arrington had two singles and a double, and Koonce contributed his two run homer in the third. Lucas had three hits for Houston.

The two victories left the Aggies with a 2-2 SWC mark and 6-4 for the season. They are now fourth in the conference.

The next Aggie action comes Friday and Saturday in Houston as the Aggies play a two-game series with Rice. They have a similar series the next weekend in Fort Worth with TCU before returning to Travis Park for a meeting with Texas Tech April 19.
