

Aggie Baseballers To Face Rice Owls For 2 Games

The Aggie baseball team faces the Rice Owls in Houston in Friday and Saturday afternoon SWC ball games over the weekend.

The Aggies are in the midst of a winning streak, and fresh from wins over TCU and Houston this past week. They walked away from the Frogs in Travis Park last Saturday 8-4 and bombed out the Cougars Monday, 13-4.

A&M enters the weekend's contests with a 2-2 conference mark and are in fourth place in the SWC. The Owls have a 1-3 SWC mark and occupy fifth place.

Coach Tom Chandler is expected to have Steve Hillhouse and either Billy Crain or Tommy Chiles pitch against Rice during the series. They will be opposed by Bill Palmer and Mickey Holder.

Hillhouse has a 2-0 record for the year and has struck out 22 men.

Chandler is expected to start with the same line-up that has brought the Aggies their last few victories. On first base will be Crain when he is not pitching. He and third baseman Mike McClure lead the Aggie batting percentages with .438 readings.

At second base will be Lance Cobb, with Mike Arrington in the shortstop position. Ralph Beckner, who is the starting catcher, has definitely contributed to Aggie scoring with his two home runs in conference games this year.

The outfield will probably consist of Alan Koonce in left, Chuck Malitz or Fred Carlton in center and Neal Thompson in right.

Swimming Pool Schedule Announced By Adamson

Aggies will be able to take off the chill of a late winter by swimming in the heated Wofford Cain Olympic Pool starting Saturday morning.

The opening of the pool was announced by Aggie swimming coach Arthur D. "Art" Adamson Thursday.

The pool will operate from April 3 through May 29 on the following schedule:

Saturday—10 a. m. to noon and 1:30 to 5:30 p. m.

Sunday—1:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Weekdays—2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

Those eligible to use the swimming pool include A&M students, faculty members, former A&M students and their guests. Guests registered in the Memorial Student Center are also eligible to use the pool.

Adamson said the admission charge will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults and guests.

Season tickets are available to faculty members for both the spring and summer sessions.

The summer schedule, which will be in effect from May 30 to August 27, will be:

Monday through Saturday—9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; 2 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. to 9 p. m.

Sunday—2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

Aggie Cindermen Face Challenge Of Texas Relays

Coach Charley Thomas is sending his Aggie trackmen against some of the toughest competition in the nation Friday and Saturday at the famed Texas Relays in Austin.

Heading the delegation is Olympic silver medal winner Randy Matson, A&M's weightman deluxe. The Pampa strong-boy has season bests of 66-8 1/4 in the shot and 189-7 in the discus.

The Aggies will enter two relay squads in the colorful carnival. The 440-yard relay team will meet its sternest test of the season. The speedy foursome of Gilbert Smith, Ted Nelson, Robert Martin and James White have sped to a 41.1 clocking this season, having lost only once in the outdoor season—to Rice in the Corpus Christi Invitational.

Thomas will also enter an 880-yard relay foursome in the meet. Running on both relays and competing in the 100-yard dash as well will be sophomore James White, the former Dallas Sunset speedster.

A&M will also field a strong freshman entry at the meet. The Fish will enter the four different relays, including the 440-yard relay, the sprint medley relay, the 2-mile relay, and the mile relay.

The Fish completely swamped the frosh teams of Rice and Texas in an earlier meet and are expected to do well in Austin.

The next meet for the A&M track forces will be on Kyle Field April 9 when the Aggies host a quadrangular beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The complete entry chart for the Texas Relays:

Saari, Buckingham Star In AAU Meet

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Roy Saari successfully defended his 1,650-yard freestyle title and Greg Buckingham broke the 400-yard individual medley record in a qualifying test as the National AAU Men's Indoor Swimming meet opened Thursday.

Southern California's Saari cracked his own listed American and meet standards in winning the gruelling equivalent of the mile for the fourth straight year, but he has a pending national mark that is even better.

He was clocked Thursday in 16:40.8. The listed American and meet record is 16:49.3, which the 20-year-old Saari registered last year at Bartlesville, Okla. Last week, however, the 6-3 190-pound Saari won the NCAA crown with spectacular 16:39.9 at Ames, Iowa.

Ironman Saari also was among six who qualified in the 400-yard individual medley being settled Thursday night. Only 65 minutes elapsed between his heat in the medley and the 1,650-yard race.

Buckingham, 19-year-old freshman at the College of San Mateo, Calif., posted his American record time of 4:11.7 in the opening heat in the 400-yard individual medley. The listed time of 4:13.2 was registered last year by Dick Roth, Buckingham's former classmate at Melo Atherton High. Roth, suffering from tendonitis, was unable to defend his title.

In addition to Buckingham and Saari, the other qualifiers were Indiana's Bill Utley, Ken Webb of Foothill College, and Southern Cal's John Porter and Frank Bates.

Arnie, Jack Head Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—The preliminaries are over, and those two fairway heavyweights, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, lead a selected 93-man field this week into the 29th Masters Golf Tournament.

Arnie the Charger and Big Jack haven't scored a victory this year but to most observers they have only been shadow-boxing. They are picked to make it a two-man duel for top honors in the first major event of the season.

The bull-shouldered, 25-year-old Nicklaus, longest driver the game has known, rules a 4-1 favorite. Palmer, the miracle comebacker, is 6-1 in the field that tees off Thursday for the four-day, 72-hole test over the Augusta National course.

Koufax's Elbow To Be Examined

VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers received a scare Thursday as star left-hander Sandy Koufax left the spring training base here and flew to Los Angeles for examination for swelling and stiffness in his pitching elbow.

The Dodgers sent the 29-year-old strikeout king to be examined by Dr. Robert Kerlan, the orthopedic specialist who treated Koufax last August.

Dodger General Manager E. J. Buzie Bavasi said, "We phoned

Dr. Kerlan and he advised Sandy to fly to Los Angeles. Dr. Kerlan wants to take X-rays of the elbow Friday and compare them with X-rays he took last year.

"If everything is all right, Sandy hopes to be back here within 24 hours."

Dodd Fischer, a senior from Eugene, Ore., posted the best individual record for Yale's 1964 golf team. He is back this spring after winning nine of 10 matches last year.
