

NOTES and QUOTES

A&M's all-SWC tackle of last season, Ray Gene Hinze from LaVega, played for the West Saturday night in the All-American All-Star game in Buffalo, N.Y. He has signed with Buffalo of the AFL. . . Another Aggie griddier of last year, end John Houston from Mineola, will be on the coaching staff at Houston Jones High next fall. Bobby Marks, A&M all-SWC end of 1957, is head coach there. . .

Eight future Aggies, recruited by Coach Gene Stallings and staff last spring, will compete in two high school all-star games this summer. . . Roland Rainey, back from Bonham, will play for the North in the Texas H.S. All-Star game in Dallas. Four Aggie recruits will be on the South squad. They are Gordon Klunkert, tackle from San Marcos; Charlie Riggs, quarterback from Galena Park; Joe Townsend, end from Bastrop and Joe Wood, back from Waller. . .

Three other Ag recruits will play for Texas in the "Big 33" game against Pennsylvania stars in Hershey, Pa. They are Rolf Krueger, tackle from Bryan; Tom Buckman, end from Fort Worth Carter and Wendell Housley, back from Richardson. . .

Coach Stallings and two of his assistants, defensive line coach Dee Powell and offensive line coach Bud Moore, will lecture at the Texas High School Coaching School in Dallas in August. . .

James White, sophomore sprinter at A&M this past season, is a scholastic casualty and will not be eligible next year for the Aggie track competition. White anchored the SWC champion Cadet sprint relay team and placed in the 100 and 200-yard dashes. He is a former state champ from Dallas Sunset. . .

Tech Grid Clash Hosts Pro Cagers

Texas A&M fans who attend the Aggie-Texas Tech football game October 2 in Lubbock also will have an opportunity to see two of the nation's top pro basketball clubs in action.

Preceding the 7:30 p.m. Southwest Conference football classic, the St. Louis Hawks will meet the Philadelphia 76ers in a 3 p.m. cage clash at Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. The Coliseum is located adjacent to Jones Stadium.

The twin sports attractions are expected to draw one of Lubbock's top crowds of the year.

The NBA cage contest will feature Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, 7-foot-1 Philadelphia center who has led all league scorers for each of his six seasons. Another 76er standout is Lucious Jackson, former Pan American University star who was NBA "Rookie of the Year" last season. The Hawks, perennial pro title contenders, boast such players as Cliff Hagan, Zelmo Beaty, Len Wilkens and Player-Coach Richie Guerin.

The basketball game will be a regulation 48-minute contest, using NBA officials and rules.

Coach Smith: 'A Tireless Worker' For A&M

The first move that Gene Stallings made last December, after being named head football coach at Texas A&M, was to appoint Elmer Smith assistant head coach.

"I feel that because of the experience he has and because of his dedication to football, Elmer Smith will continue to be an outstanding coach," Stallings said.

Grid Book Sale

Sales are continuing for the 1965 Texas A&M football brochure.

The Aggie grid fact book contains 84 pages of information about past and present Aggie teams, coaches and opponents.

Books may be purchased from the Athletic Office at $1 each.

Smith, a tireless worker and knowledgeable football man, has a long storied coaching background. In 1965 he will be starting his 12th season as assistant at A&M, having come here in 1954 to join Coach Paul Bryant's staff.

He came here from Southern State College in Magnolia, Arkansas, where he had been head coach eight years, compiling a 57-27 record, including two perfect seasons—10-0 in 1951 and 11-0 in 1952.

His first coaching job was at Hamburg Arkansas High in 1931, and in two years there, he compiled an 18-2 record. Next, he was an assistant coach at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, for four years. He then went to Centenary College, Shreveport, Louisiana, as backfield coach in 1936 and stayed there until 1942 when he entered the navy. He reached the rank of lieutenant commander during World War II and following his tour of service, he became head coach at Southern State College.

Born in Casa, Arkansas, Smith was graduated from Danville, Arkansas High and entered Hendrix College at Conway where he became one of the school's all-time athletic greats. He was a four-year, four-sport performer, starting as a fullback in football. A few years ago he was named one of the ten most distinguished graduates of the college.

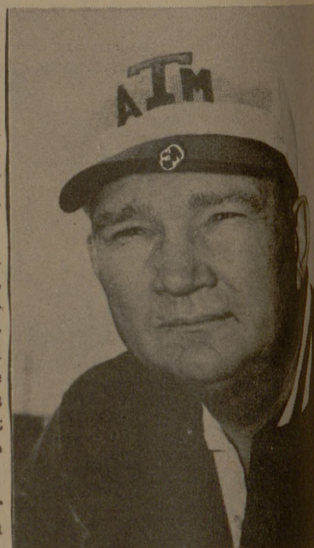

A soft-spoken man with a dry sense of humor, Smith has a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in physical education, the latter from Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee.

One of the most popular and respected coaches in the Southwest, Smith is a top recruiter and works the Northeast Texas area for the Aggies.

When appointed assistant head coach of the Aggies, Smith said, "I'm deeply honored and appreciative of the faith Coach Stallings has shown in me. I will dedicate myself to him and the future of football here at Texas A&M. I feel very strongly that Coach Stallings can get the job done."

Smith is married to the former Sybil Tucker who is a junior high teacher in the Bryan school system.
