

5 Aggie Juniors Win ROTC Scholarships From Army

Five Texas A&M juniors are among 600 college students selected as the first recipients of Reserve Officer Training Corps Scholarships from the Army. The scholarships provide two years of study starting in September.

Each scholarship will provide the cadet with an allowance of $50 a month for the duration of his award, plus the cost of tuition, textbooks and fees.

Recipients have completed two years of ROTC training, Col. D. L. Baker said. He was notified as professor of military science at Texas A&M of the selection of the Aggies.

Those chosen are: Jim Bob Mitchel, of Amarillo; Robert M. Miller, Colorado Springs, Colorado; Robert W. McConnell, Fort Sam Houston; Edward A. Carrigo, Howard Air Force Base, Canal Zone; Alan R. Miller, Milan Tennessee.

Each recipient was nominated by Colonel Baker and university officials. Nominations were made on the basis of academic and extracurricular record, performance during the first two years of ROTC, qualification test scores, physical fitness and interviews.

The Army ROTC program provides approximately 85 per cent of the new officers entering the Army each year. This is about 20 times the number of officers commissioned annually at West Point.

Almost 12,000 ROTC graduates from 247 colleges and universities are being commissioned this year. Each will serve as a second lieutenant in the Regular Army or Army Reserve.

The 400 high school graduates to receive four-year Army ROTC Scholarships will be announced this month. These scholarships carry the same benefits of two-year awards.

BILL MOYER

Bill Moyer An Ex-Student Of A&M Prof

By BOB PALMER

Bill Moyer, new Presidential press-secretary, spent three of his years at North Texas State studying under Delbert McGuire, who is now head of the journalism department at A&M.

"At North Texas Moyer was a top student, active in student affairs and he held an office in the senate," McGuire recalls.

Before going to North Texas, Moyer worked on the Marshall News-Reporter, starting at the age of 12 reporting Little League games and getting his first by-line at 15. When Moyer left for college the News-Reporter recommended him as a "Good worker and excellent reporter."

McGuire says Moyer had a definite philosophy about press relationships. He thought the press should have the opportunity to cover a story fully, but in return should live up to its responsibility of keeping the story accurate so that no legislative action restricting the freedom of the press would be necessary.

Though Moyer never worked on a metropolitan newspaper his former teacher believes that this change in press-secretaries should help both the press and the President.

Looking ahead, McGuire says, "Bill is a young man in a hurry, he already holds a job at 31 that is usually held by a man of 50. His future is unlimited — regardless of who is President he can remain in high appointed office."
