Top Scientist To Be Here At International Conclave

entist of the British Isles, Dr. now serves as deputy chief sci-Leonard F. Cooling, will be key- entific officer, Building Research the note speaker Aug. 30 for an international conference at Texas Scheduled through Sept. 1 is the International Research and Engineering Conference on Expansive Clay Soils. The movement of these soils often is blamed for cracks in patios and highways and the walls of homes and other buildings.

Australian and Texan organizations sponsor the conference. Approximately 300 persons are expected with more than 150 already pre-registered.

Dr. Cooling is among scientists and engineers from 12 nations on the conference program. He was leader of the first soil mechanics laboratory
