Football Brochure Packed With Facts Of A&M Football

One of the nation's most complete football brochures ever produced is now on sale at the Athletic Business Office in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

The 1965 handbook to Texas A&M football, compiled by Sports Publicity Director Spec Gammon, contains more facts and figures about A&M football than any booklet ever has. It costs $1.

It even tells how to pronounce the players' names. For instance, Eddie McKaughan is Ma-COIN; Joe Weiss is Wice (rhymes with vice).

A short personal sketch of each Aggie player is included in the 84-page press guide, as well as information about the coaches and other athletic department personnel.

It presents a play-by-play account of each of last season's games, gives results of every game since Aggie football began, accounts the record of A&M against every opponent it has ever played, lists the all-SWC players from A&M, tells that A&M has won 352 games and lost 230 and tied 44, and has scored 10,544 points to their opponents' 5,764.

Reduced Tickets For Aggie Dates Now Available

Reduced price date tickets at $4 each for all home games are on sale at the ticket booths at G. Rollie White Coliseum.

These tickets must be purchased by 5 p.m. Sept. 24. After that time, date tickets will cost the regular price of $5.

Date and student tickets for games away will be sold for one week ending at 5 p.m. on Wednesday preceding the game.

An athletic activity card and student identification card will be required in purchasing date and student tickets to games away. No date tickets will be sold on the day of the game.

Athletic Department office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

DEFENSIVE TERRORS

Aggie seniors Joe Wellborn, left, of Tomball and Jerry Kachtik of Rio Hondo are two top men on A&M's defensive unit. Wellborn plays linebacker; Kachtik is an end. Both are two-year veterans.

A&M Hall Of Fame To Add 4 Former Athletes, Coaches

Four more athletes and coaches will be inducted into Texas A&M's Hall of Fame this year. The first five Aggie greats were tapped Oct. 16, 1964, as the hall was inaugurated.

The first five inductees: —Frank G. (Col. Andy) Anderson, track coach here for 25 years, during which time his teams won nine SWC titles and never finished lower than third.

—Joel Hunt, all-SWC back for three years (1925-27) and scored 128 points his senior year which is still a conference mark. —Joseph E. Routt, two-time all-America guard (1936-37) for the Aggies, and considered one of the finest linemen ever in the SWC. He died in the Battle of the Bulge in 1945.

—John Kimbrough, twice all-America fullback (1939-40) and one of hardest runners in SWC history.

—Bill (Jitterbug) Henderson, most versatile athlete in A&M history, winning 11 varsity letters in five sports.

Stallings Signs 63 Recruits In Preparation For Future

New A&M grid mentor Gene Stallings signed 63 schoolboy performers, the largest announced recruiting haul in the Southwest Conference.

Stallings signed prep stars from all across Texas in addition to several out-of-staters.

Stallings was particularly successful in inking highly-regarded quarterbacks. Only four signal-callers were signed, but all had glittering prep careers.

Charlie Riggs of Galena Park and Bob Long of Paris were the first and second-team 4A all-state quarterbacks, respectively. Linden-Kildare's Eddie Hargett was the 2A second-team signal caller.

On paper, the Cadets also recruited the greatest number of quality running backs in the league. Several were mentioned on the all-state squads.

Ace Cooley of Victoria was listed on the third team of the 4A all-star team, as was fullback George Rincon of Baytown. Roland Rainey from Bonham was selected to the 3A second-team line-up.

Dublin's John Turney made the second team of the 2A all-state club. Joe Wood, a 195-pounder from Waller, was a third-team all-state in class 1A. Richardson's Wendell Housley is another top prospect.

A good end crop was brought in, both in quality and quantity. Arvell Fisby of Nederland was a third team all-state choice in 4A. Other standouts include Super-Central Texas selection Joe Townsend of Bastrop and all-around athlete Tommy Buckman of Fort Worth Carter.

The interior linemen are comparatively smaller in number but the list includes several highly-touted individuals. Gordon Klunkert, was a first team all-state selection in class 3A from San Marcos, state finalists.

Harvey Aschenback was a second team choice at tackle on the 2A all-state squad. Bryan's Rolf Krueger was a Super Centex choice at tackle.
