Dix's Son Attends Dummer Academy

Special to The Battalion
SOUTH BYFIELD, Mass. — Attending Governor Dummer Academy this year is Theodore H. Dix, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A.
Kilpatrick, 1610 Dominik Drive, College Station.

He is one of 264 boarding students and 26 day students from 32 states and six foreign countries. This is the largest number of boys ever enrolled at the Academy, which is America's oldest independent boarding school for boys, founded in 1763. Vallean Wilkie Jr. is headmaster of Governor Dummer which recently opened for its 202nd year of continuous operation.

Recently involved in a major expansion program, the academy added a new chapel and arts center a year ago, and this fall opens with a new dormitory accommodating 35 students and two faculty families. Named for the former headmaster Edward W.
Eames, the dormitory is essentially colonial and in keeping with existing buildings both old and new. Included is wall-to-wall carpeting, independently controlled electric heat in all rooms, and two living rooms for informal student-faculty gatherings.

An addition to the dining room will soon be completed.

DOG WITH A CAN-ON

Gretchen, three-year-old German Shorthair pointer owned by Jack H. Bell of Spokane, Wash., ended up in the can so her leg could heal. The dog received a severe rear leg cut on a barbed wire fence. And because she would remove sutures and medication from the cut with her teeth, Bell put the padded can over her head. Humane Society officials approved. (AP Wirephoto)
