1966 AGGIELAND
Date: 15 October 1965
To: Unit First Sergeants
From: Military Section,
SUBJECT: Outfit Pictures

Outfit pictures for the AGGIELAND will be made according to the schedule below.
Uniform will be class A winter. Outfit C.O.'s will wear sabers; seniors will wear boots and mid-night shirts. Guidons and award flags will be carried. All personnel in the outfit will wear the billed service cap issued by the university. The type of cap worn by undergrads and to and from the picture-taking area is left up to the discretion of the outfit C.O.

Outfits should be in front of the Administration Building by 1230 hours on the appointed day. Arrangements should be made by first sergeants with the Mess Hall supervisors to allow the outfit to be admitted to the Mess Hall early.

CHICAGO (AP) — Ed Rozy, trainer for the Chicago Bears, figures the club lost a total of 108 "man games" during last fall's 19-game pre-season and regular season. Rozy defines a "man game" on the basis of a player missing an entire game due to injury.

DANGEROUS DUO

"Big John" Beasley and Randy Matson, two of A&M's brightest basketball prospects for the coming season, prepare for the cage battles to come. Beasley, 6-9, was the SWC leading scorer in 1965 while Matson, 6-6, has just joined the team from the track world.

NOTES and QUOTES

A&M Coach Gene Stallings (on the 2-point conversion try against TCU) "If I had to make the decision again, after giving it serious thought, we'd do the same thing. We're teaching our kids that the object of the game is to win and we had a chance to win. We didn't go to TCU to play for a tie."

TCU Coach Abe Martin's post-game dressing room quote: "I thought they would go for two. I would have, too, under the same circumstances . . . They've got a pretty good ball club, one that is well-coached."

Three Aggie footballers will be observing birthday anniversaries Saturday, the date of the A&M-Baylor football game at Kyle Field. Sophomore linebacker Robert Cortez of San Benito will be 21, as will split end Ted Sparling of Jal, N. M. . . . Offensive tackle Tuffy Fletcher of Kerrville will be 22 . . .

Houston Post Sports Editor Mickey Herskowitz was on the move in order to be in Austin Sunday morning to MC the Gene Stallings TV show . . . He covered the Texas-Arkansas game in Fayetteville and had to drive to Oklahoma City, arriving at 3 a.m., in order to catch a plane for Dallas and then to Austin. We walked into the TV studio a half-hour before filming commenced with the quip: "And, somebody said it couldn't be done."

SWC sports is now minus an excellent chronicler as Frank Boggs has departed his desk at the Dallas Times-Herald to join a San Diego paper where he'll cover the Chargers and do a column . . .

North Texas To Meet Hog

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — So your team is going to play mighty Arkansas, No. 1 in the nation. Your team has won only one out of five and the opposition has scored 141 points on you. Texas Western rolled up 61.

So, coach, what do you think about playing Arkansas? Odus Mitchell, veteran coach of North Texas State, didn't hesitate a second.

"We were going to play them anyway and I'd rather it would be against the No. 1 team than anybody else."

"We — myself and my boys — consider it an honor and I am confident that we will give a good account of ourselves. I wouldn't say that we could beat Arkansas but we sure are glad to get to play them."

"You are judged by the company you keep and we want to be in the best company we can find."

Mitchell said he had pored over his scouting reports and just couldn't find any weakness in the Arkansas team—either offense or defense.

"But my team has been improving with each game. Last week it played very well against Tulsa, which beat us 27-20. Tulsa gave Arkansas a pretty tough game before losing 20-12. We are about as good as Tulsa and Arkansas says Tulsa is about as good as anybody they played."

North Texas isn't in the best shape possible, having lost a starting end and fullback in last week's game.

Girl Cheerleaders Banned At Yale

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Yale's girl cheerleaders, spectacular in their road debut last week, have been banned from performing in the Yale Bowl on Saturday.

The cuties, recruited from Connecticut College for women at New London, showed up for the first time last Saturday for the Columbia - Yale football game in New York.

Clad in short blue skirts and white "Y" sweaters, they were a big hit. The idea was to pep up the Yale crowds.

The fact that Yale, an all-male university, lost its third football game in four starts has nothing to do with the ban.

Tom Thomsen wanted challenging work

He found it at Western Electric

T. R. Thomsen, B.S.M.E., University of Nebraska, '58, came to Western Electric for several reasons. Important to him was the fact that our young engineers play vital roles right from the start, working on exciting engineering projects in communications including: electronic switching, thin film circuitry, microwave systems and optical masers.

Western Electric's wide variety of challenging assignments appealed to Tom, as did the idea of advanced study through full-time graduate engineering training, numerous management courses and a company-paid Tuition Refund Plan.

Tom knows, too, that we'll need thousands of experienced engineers for supervisory positions within the next few years. And he's getting the solid experience necessary to qualify. Right now, Tom is developing new and improved inspection and process control techniques to reduce manufacturing costs of telephone switching equipment. Tom is sure that Western Electric is the right place for him. What about you?

If you set the highest standards for yourself, enjoy a challenge, and have the qualifications we're looking for — we want to talk to you! Opportunities for fast-moving careers exist now for electrical, mechanical and industrial engineers, and also for physical science, liberal arts and business majors. For more detailed information, get your copy of the Western Electric Career Opportunities booklet from your Placement Officer. And be sure to arrange for an interview when the Bell System recruiting team visits your campus.
