Arthur P. Snader, 81, believed to be the last town crier in the western hemisphere, has retired in Provincetown, Mass. Snader says he's just plain "tired out" from his duties which consist of meeting excursion boats, walking down narrow streets, announcing local news and tides. (AP Wirephoto)

Zucrow Slates Speech Here Wednesday

Dr. Maurice J. Zucrow, distinguished professor of engineering and director of the Jet Propulsion Center at Purdue University, will speak here Wednesday and Thursday.

Zucrow will address the faculty of Texas A&M's College of Engineering at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the architecture lecture room on "Development of the Jet Propulsion Center at Purdue."

At 10 a.m. Thursday, Zucrow will speak to counselors of the A&M Research Foundation in the Memorial Student Center's Birch Room.

Co-chairmen for the Thursday meeting will be President Earl Rudder and Research Foundation Board Chairman J. Harold Dunn of Amarillo.

Zucrow is chief consultant on jet propulsion for the United States' TFX plane. He has served on numerous national committees concerning guided missiles, jet propulsion and aeronautics, and is the author of several textbooks regarding jet propulsion and gas turbines.

Esten To Talk At YMCA's Last Lecture

Professor C. K. Esten of the Department of English will lecture at 6 p.m. Monday at the YMCA's second installment of "My Last Lecture" series.

The lecture will be open to all Texas A&M students of Texas A&M, and snacks will be served.

Esten, commonly known as the "Voice of Kyle Field," graduated from Baylor University with a B.A. degree in 1931 and returned to Baylor to earn an M.A. degree in 1949.

The quest for knowledge brought Esten back to Baylor in 1961, where he secured another M.A. degree.

Although having spent much of his life in Texas, Esten originally came from Providence, Rhode Island.

Other "Last Lecture" talks are scheduled for Nov. 1 and Nov. 8.

Among The Profs 2 English Professors To Speak At Fellowship

Two assistant professors of English at Texas A&M will speak to the College Station Unitarian Fellowship during the next three weeks.

Allen Schrader will discuss "I am not Prince Hamlet, nor was meant to be," a statement by Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman," at 8 p.m. Sunday. Milton A. Huggett will speak Nov. 7 on "John Updike: Artist, Teacher and Prophet?"

Zwolinski Appointed To Directors Group
Dr. Bruno J. Zwolinski, director of Texas A&M's Chemical Thermodynamic Properties Center, has been appointed to the board of directors of the Calorimetry Conference.

Two members from other universities were also added to the six-man board. The conference was initiated 20 years ago.

Zwolinski will attend the next conference, scheduled for June, 1966, at North American Aviation in California.

Zwolinski and two other faculty members have been appointed visiting scientists by the Texas Academy of Sciences for the 1965-66 program. With Dr. Gilbert P. Haight Jr., professor of inorganic chemistry, and Dr. A. F. Isbell, professor of organic chemistry, Zwolinski will consult and lecture students and staffs of Texas high schools and colleges.

AAUP, TACT To Meet On Campus Monday
The American Association of University Professors and local chapters of the Texas Association of Classroom Teachers will meet Monday at Texas A&M.

Set for 7:30 p.m. in the assembly room of the Memorial Student Center, the meeting will feature a report on a faculty compensation hearing by a committee of the state legislature.

Dr. John Treacy, associate professor of economics at A&M, will discuss faculty tenure.

Haight Publishes 4 Chemistry Articles
Dr. Gilbert Haight Jr., professor of chemistry at Texas A&M, is the author or co-author of four recent publications.

Two of these, published in the Journal of Chemical Education are "Experiments of Metal Ammine Salts" and "The Tin (II) -Methyl Orange Reaction: A Kinetics Experiment for Introductory Chemistry."

"The Mechanism of the Oxidation of Sulfur by Chromium" appeared in the Journal of the American Society.

Haight is co-author with Professor Harry Gray of Columbia University of an introductory textbook, "Basic Chemistry." It was released in September by its publisher, W. A. Benjamin, Inc.

PERSONAL call

These days, our minds are as busy as switchboards! There are so many things to think about, at work, at school or at home. Even our leisure hours often require a lot of mental activity . . . and peace of mind seems very far away.

Yet peace of mind is possible for us all, when we turn to God for relief from the tensions of modern living. He is fully aware of all our problems and difficulties, and He is always ready to lead us to a greater serenity of spirit than we have ever known.

That is why, when we take a little time from our busy lives to attend church, we leave feeling refreshed and strengthened. We have shared in His divine gift of peace.

This Sunday, God's call to a new and certain way of meeting the pressures of life is a personal call . . . for you.
