Ex Nominated To Magazine Anniversary All-America

One Aggie and three other Texans have been honored with nominations by their respective alma maters for this year's Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America Awards.

They take their places on a slate of 64 candidates, all cited for their exceptional success in life in the 25 years since their senior collegiate football season of 1940.

The Aggie-ex on the list is Joe E. Rothe, a back on the 1939 National Champions and 1940 SWC Co-champions that set the conference record for the longest winning streak at 19 games.

He is now a colonel in the United States Army Reserve. He began his career as an assistant county agricultural agent in Lavaca County, Texas, and now supervises the work of 19 agents engaged in educational and 4-H programs in the upper Gulf Coast and Southeast Texas Areas.

Also nominated from Texas are Garvin V. Beauchamp of Abilene, John W. Matthews of Houston and Raymond D. Richards, also of Houston.

Beauchamp played his college football at Abilene Christian College, where he was a four-year letterman and president of the student body his senior year.

He later became head coach at Abilene Christian and is now its dean of students.

Matthews was nominated by Susquehanna University, where he was a four-year guard and co-captain of his undefeated team.

Richards played as a halfback on one of Northwestern's finest teams. He joined the Navy on December 6, 1941 and logged 2,000 hours as a patrol plane commander in the Pacific.

Blanda Refuses To Quit, Named Player Of Week

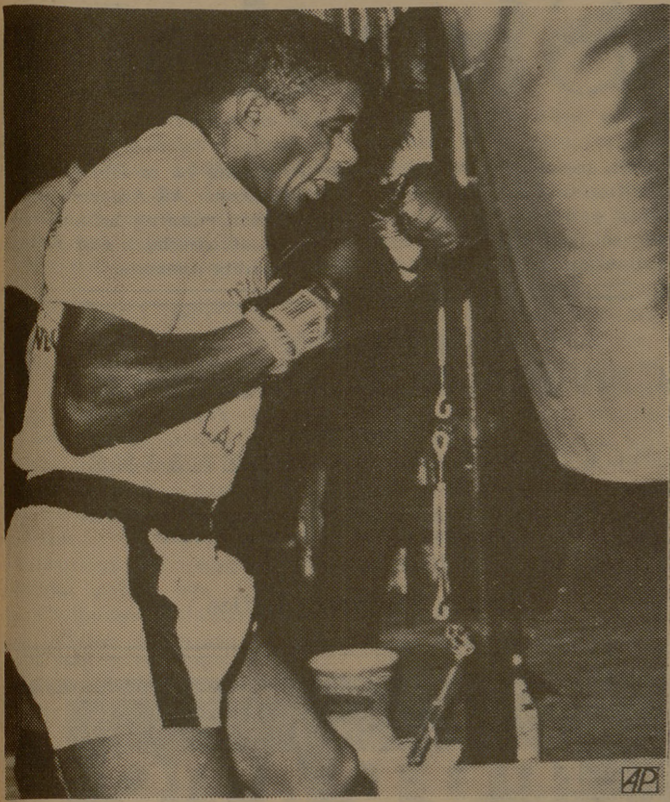

NEW YORK (AP) — That George Blanda is a tough guy. He just refuses to go. Houston fans have been yelling for young Don Trull and booing the 37-year-old Blanda so the coaches benched the veteran last week. But not for long.

Trull started Sunday but the oilers trailed Kansas City 17-0 in the first half. They sent the old man in to start the second half.

In the space of four minutes and 24 seconds, Blanda threw three touchdown passes of 64, 49 and 17 yards, added a fourth TD at the end of the period and made it five in the last quarter.

That was enough to make Blanda the Associated Press' choice as Offensive Player of the Week in the American Football League but it wasn't enough for Blanda. Trailing 36-35 with one minute and 20 seconds to go, Blanda completed four passes to set up a 15-yard field goal by Jack Spikes with 17 seconds to go that won the game.

Charley Ferguson came to the rescue of the Buffalo Bills by catching four passes for 36 yards against Denver. It was a fine recovery for the split end who had dropped two passes that were almost certain TDs against San Diego.

Lee McDowell Is Defending Ag Golf Champ

Lee McDowell, junior from Baytown, is defending champion in the A&M School Golf Tournament which has started at the college course.

McDowell won the title last fall and led varsity qualifiers in 11 18-hole rounds played during the last three weeks. He fired a 75 for the 11 tours of the par-70 course.

Carl Chapman of Houston led the freshmen qualifying with an 82.

Currently, the varsity and freshmen squads are engaged in a match play tournament with 18-hole duels. Finals in both divisions will be over 36 holes and then the frosh champ will play the varsity champ for the school title in a 36-hole match.

Here's the way the varsity players finished in qualifying rounds: Lee McDowell, Baytown, 86; John Walker, Fort Worth, 88; David Holcomb, Mission, 89; Terry Archer, Omaha, 820; John Buffin, San Antonio, 829; and Bill Dinwiddie, Lubbock, 834.

The freshman list was head by Carl Chapman, Houston, 829; Tom Miles, Quincy, Ill, 834; Craig Owens, Houston and Jody Vasquez, Fort Worth, both 851; Braley Swinney, Tyler, 859.

Winner of the school title receives a trophy donated by First National Bank of Bryan.
