Educators Discuss Enrollment, Autos

Problems of increased enrollment and the flood of new automobiles on Texas campuses were some of the topics discussed during the meeting of the Texas Association of Personnel Administrators on the A&M campus, according to Dean James P. Hannigan.

Dr. Richard Strahan, who spoke on the legal aspects, emphasized due legal process proceedings before suspending a student in order to avoid suits against the school. He also discussed the legal value of contracts that are signed by students who are minors.

Dr. Richard Weinerdi, who spoke on "Education in the Space Age," emphasized the importance of science in the future.

First Baptist Fall Revival To Be Led By Semple, Young

Two dynamic personalities will lead the Fall revival opening Sunday at the First Baptist Church of College Station.

Dr. James H. Semple, First Baptist Church pastor at Paris, will be the evangelist with Coleman Young of Temple directing the musical program.

The revival runs Nov. 7-12. Sunday services will be conducted at the regular times, 10:45 a.m. and 7:20 p.m. Monday through Friday, the hours are 7 a.m. and 7:15 p.m.

Semple earned advanced degrees from Southwestern Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth after moving to Texas from Florida. He received a bachelor of arts degree from John B. Stetson University in Deland, Fla., and pastored at Ocala, Fla., in his senior year at the university. The 34-year-old exanglicanist has served as pastor in Miami, Wells, Fort Worth, Plano and Paris. His doctoral program at the seminary was in the field of church history. He minored in philosophy of religion and the history of preaching. Young has been minister of music at Temple's First Baptist Church since 1957. He holds bachelor's and masters degrees from Howard Payne College and attended the Southwestern Baptist Seminary. A nursery will be provided for Sunday and all evening services during the revival.
