Special To The Battalion
AUSTIN — D. C. Greer, Texas State Highway Engineer, has outlined an initial plan of compliance with the recently-enacted Federal Highway Beautification Act.

The act, as approved by the Congress and signed into law by President Johnson, envisions control of billboards and junkyards and scenic enhancement along the nation's federal-aid highway systems.

In Texas this will include the 3,027 miles of the Interstate highway system and 14,562 miles of the primary system, or a total of 17,589 miles.

The Texas Highway Commission now has directed that initial action be taken by the Texas Highway Department to comply with the intent and purposes of the act. Greer explained these steps as follows:

(1) A complete inventory of the outdoor advertising signs, displays and devices presently in place within 660 feet of the nearest edge of the right of way and visible from the main travelway of the highways.

(2) A similar inventory of junkyards leading to their removal or screening under the act.

(3) An expanded program of work on highway landscaping and scenic enhancement, totalling approximately $10 million.

Information obtained by the two inventories, Greer said, will be used in studies that will be made relative to possible state legislation to implement the provision of the act, including zoning of industrial and commercial areas along the State highway system.

He added, however, that some of the junkyards adjacent to Interstate and Primary highways can be screened by plantings, fences and other means.

The Texas Highway Department is already taking steps to form an expanded program on landscaping and scenic enhancement. Its estimated cost is about $10 million.

Now! New Chevelle SS 396 by Chevrolet

New '66 Chevelle SS 396 Convertible and Sport Coupe.

Equipped with a Turbo-Jet 396 V8, special suspension and red stripe tires. These cars weren't meant for the driver who is willing to settle for frills. They're engineered from the chassis on up as no-compromise road machines. Standard output of the new Turbo-Jet 396 V8—which powers both models—is 325 hp. This remarkably efficient power plant is also available in a 360-hp version. So much for what happens on straightaways. How about curves? You ride on a special SS 396 chassis—with flat-cornering suspension and wide-base wheels. A fully synchronized 3-speed transmission is standard. Or you can order a 4-speed or Powerglide—also Strato-bucket front seats, center console and full instrumentation. Sound like a car you could get serious over? That, as you'll see at your dealer's, is precisely how Chevrolet engineers planned it. Seriously.
