Cobb Outlines Responsibilities

Political science specialist Edwin L. Cobb outlined the "Political Responsibilities of Students" for members of the YMCA Monday night.

The professor from the Department of History and Government stressed these five points: -Don't expect too much. Changes don't happen all at once.

-Don't do something; just stand there. Don't get involved in too much and lose your effectiveness.

-Prepare yourself for politics. Political information can be gained from novels as well as textbooks. Learn about people and what they are likely to do.

-Anything worth - while is worth doing even if you do it badly. -Let your conscience be your guide. When you see something worth working on, work on it.

Behind the News from Viet Nam

Background News Map SOUTH VIET NAM From The Associated Press. Includes map of South Vietnam with various regions labeled and a key to symbols.

We now have for you a striking war map drawn for us in full color on the basis of special reports from AP war correspondents. Nearly 2 feet wide and 2 1/2 feet deep, it shows you where the action is, locates U.S. bases and indicates the areas of U.S. operations. Together with six supplementary maps on the back it details regions overrun by the Viet Cong, the infiltration points, the transportation routes, the weather, historical background and much, much more. It's a must for anyone who has a loved one in the service, or who wants to keep up with the conflict. Suitable for home, office, library or memento file. Nothing else like it is available anywhere. If you want one, act at once! The maps cost $1 each. (Print coupon here)
