

Ags Rally To Drop Owls

By LARRY R. JERDEN
Battalion Sports Editor

The Aggies won. By the slimmest of margins, and in spite of overwhelming Rice statistics, the Aggies won, 14-13. It was sufficient to give A&M its first SWC victory of the year and its third win of the '65 grid season.

Looking at percentages, the Aggies did well for the afternoon. To get the winning score, they made 50 per cent of their completed passes go for TD's, and following the six-pointers, Glynn Lindsey made 100 per cent of his PAT attempts. The Farmers also covered 80 per cent of Rice's fumbles, and converted the 5 per cent of the Owls' passes they intercepted into solid touchdowns.

Aggie heroes were numerous Saturday afternoon. There was Lindsey who kicked the winning extra point, and Ken Caffey who gained the largest hunk of Aggie yards on the ground and blocked the Rice PAT that saved the game. And there were Ken Lamkin, Joe Wellborn, Scoggin and Jerry Nichols, all of whom covered fumbles, and Nichols again intercepting the pass that set up the winning TD.

But the day belonged to Eddie McKaughan. He went into the game to guide six series of downs. Two of those he led for touchdowns, and the last was for one play to end the game.

The first Aggie score came with 11 minutes left in the third quarter on a McKaughan to Jim Stabler pass that covered 32 yards. The Ags had taken the ball on their own 33 after forcing Rice to punt. McKaughan threw two incompletes before hitting Dude McLean on the 46 for a first. Caffey dashed around right end for eight and two plays later McKaughan scrambled around to his right for five yards and the first down. The sub quarterback kept to the opposite side twice for six and five yard pickups, threw incomplete for Caffey and then hit Stabler for the score. Lindsey made the conversion.

After the Owls and Ags exchanged a fumble for an interception, Rice was set up with first and 10 on the 50. After taking the snap from center, quarterback Dave Furgeson flipped the ball to Chuck Latourette and the speedy tailback set sail around right end for a 50-yard scurry to paydirt. Richard Parker put his boot into the pigskin, but not quick enough to get past Caffey. The big Ag sliced in around the end and blocked the point that was to save the game.

Rice had scored on the opening series of the game when they drove 84 yards in 12 plays on a drive that was capped off by Latourette driving over tackle from the two and Parker kicking the PAT.

The score remained 13-7 until the last three minutes of the game. McKaughan had been put in and taken out again, but was given the go-ahead with 3:25 left in the game.

The Cadets gained possession when Jerry Nichols intercepted a Ferguson pass on the Rice 45. He was headed for glory-land when an Owl broke through the three blockers in front of him and brought him down after a 24 yard return.

McKaughan took command of the situation on the Rice 21 and gave the pigskin to Caffey who crashed through the right side for 2. The next play was the big one, and after seeing Stabler covered, McKaughan spotted big

John Poss standing hungry for the ball on the goal line and fired it to him for the winning TD. Lindsey came in and booted the pressure-point for the margin of victory.

After an exchange of drives, the Owls took possession on their own 27 with 38 seconds left. They started on a do-or-die drive and moved to the Farmer 48 when the big play was launched.

They'd seen Georgia use it to beat Alabama, and Tech had used it to down the Ags, so why not . . . ? They launched the bomb to Tommy Tyner on the 38 who lateralled off to Latourette. But from there the script wasn't followed, the pitch out was a little off and Nichols was there to cover the ball and clinch the afternoon's efforts for the Cadets.

Rice rolled up 446 yards total offense to the Farmers' 186, but as someone has said, all the yards gained between the 20's amount to just so much torn up turf. The Aggies' passing effort was the poorest of some weeks, but they made the two big ones, and in victory, all things are for good to those on the winning side.

Caffey led Ag rushers with 53 yards on nine carries and McKaughan was right behind him with 36 net yards on 11 carries.

Phil Scoggin, in addition to his commendable defensive efforts, booted the ball eight times for a 47.1 average. Ken Lamkin led defensive efforts with 12 tackles followed by Wellborn, and Kattik with 11 each.

Fish Explode To Clobber Picadors 39-7
By LARRY UPSTAW
Battalion Sports Writer
A puny gust of wind rolled from the Brazos Saturday night and became a full-fledged cyclone out on the plains of West Texas. The Aggie Fish matured with full fury, pounding the Texas Tech Picadors into the sand and sagebrush of Sweetwater by the resounding score of 39-7.
With halfback Wendell Housley coming alive to match his pre-season notices to score four touchdowns, the young Ags whirled 300 yards on the ground to 54 for the downtrodden Picadors.
Housley opened scoring midway in the first period with a 33-yard blast around right end as center Mike Caswell left numerous Picadors sprawled on their hindmost.
Charlie Riggs booted the extra point for a 7-0 lead.
But Housley and Co. declared germ's breath until the offensive line blew large holes in the Picador setup for Housley. He pranced for scores of 4 and 1 yards, and Riggs flexed his toes thrice, giving the Fish a 21-0 lead at halftime.
The storm continued in the second half. Unloading the air mail atop the hapless Picadors, quarterbacks Bob Long and Curley Hallman drilled Maxwell with scoring tosses of 9 and 54 yards.
After halfback Roland Rainey whizzed 60 yards with the kickoff and Hallman spiked end Tom Buckman with a 17-yard bomb on the Tech 2, Housley hanged over to cap the storm of points at 39-7.
