Anderson Close To All-Time Collegiate Grid Rush Mark

LUBBOCK (AP) — If Donny Anderson, Texas Tech's All-American halfback, can advance the ball 26 yards against Arkansas Saturday at Fayetteville, he will become the best yardage maker in major college football history.

Ollie Matson of San Francisco amassed the largest total for all purposes — running, receiving, returning kicks and interceptions — on the NCAA bureau books. He got 4,963 yards in 1949-50-51.

Anderson, with one game left has accounted for 4,938.

The Tech star led the nation last year with 1,710 yards and has exceeded that figure with 1,849 this fall. He has 630 rushing, 652 receiving, 513 returning kickoffs and 54 running back punts.

Coach J. T. King of Texas Tech declares Anderson best fits the requirements for a Heisman Trophy winner. Anderson, who was red-shirted one season, was drafted by Green Bay of the National Football League in the first round last year. Houston of the American football League also took him in its first round

AGGIE PURSUIT - '65 STYLE

10 Aggies give it all they've got racing to the aid of Robert Cortez (55) and Joe Wellborn (50) as they bring down Rector's Lester Lehman (37) after a substantial gain. The Owls had command of the field for much of the afternoon, but with pursuit like that above and making the big plays, the Ags reigned supreme by winning 14-13.

Ag Roundballers On Schedule

"We're right on schedule. We are getting everything done we set out to do," Coach Shelby Metcalf reported as the fourth week of basketball drills neared the end.

John Beasley, the 6-9 senior shooting whiz, has indicated he's set for another great season of bombarding the basket. "In our first three scrimmages, John hit 60 per cent of his field goal tries, 90 per cent of his free throws and averaged 35 points per game," Metcalf said. "And, he didn't play all of the time. He's the greatest basketball player I've ever been associated with."

Although Beasley is the bell-cow of the Aggies' cage hopes for the 1965-66 campaign, the most talked-about and written-about player so far has been Randy Matson, the 6-6½, 248-pound sophomore who is known world-wide as the greatest shot-putter in history.

"Randy gets better every day as he learns more about what we are doing," Metcalf explains. "Things are coming back to him after a two-year layoff and he continues to improve."

Metcalf voiced a note of caution to basketball fans who follow the Aggies. "Most knowledgeable basketball people say it will be impossible for Matson to break into varsity college play after a two-year layoff and with just high school experience, but we think he can. He'll probably play better than he should, especially when you consider his lack of experience. Fans should not expect a lot of points from Randy because even when he was making all-state at Pampa High, he was noted mostly for his defense and rebounding. Those two things — defense and rebounding — are his big assets to us, but I think he'll score some points for us, too."

Metcalf said he just didn't want a lot of pressure put on Randy. "I think he is a tremendous athlete and he'll be accomplishing a lot just by making our starting team. Not that we're that good, but because he hasn't played basketball the past two seasons.

The Aggie mentor said that Dick Rector of Dumas, who finished his sophomore year as a starter, is holding forth at the same spot. "It's going to take a good boy to dislodge Rector from that spot because he's a tremendous competitor.

Eddie Dominguez, senior floor general and postmen Tim Timmerman and Sonny Fethkenher, also seniors, were lauded for early showings. "Dominguez makes up for any lack of physical ability with his mental alertness. Both Timmerman and Fethkenher have accepted the challenges to beat out Beasley and Matson for the post positions and those spot could be the strongest part of our play this year," Metcalf said.

The Aggies open their cage season at home Dec. 2, against Trinity.

The Varsity and Freshman squads will clash in a free "open house" exhibition for Bryan-College Station fans on the night of Nov. 29.

Michigan St. Still No. 1 Hogs Hold 2nd

(AP) — Michigan State, rolling along week after week as the nation's No. 1 college football team, faces its biggest challenge in a decade Saturday against the determined legions of Notre Dame.

The game is one of three big ones on tap this weekend, each involving two members of the Top Ten and each of national importance. They are Notre Dame - Michigan State, Arkansas - Texas Tech and Southern California - UCLA.

An Arkansas victory will give it the Southwest Conference title outright—and perhaps a shot at the national title if Michigan State should stumble. Tech gains a share of the conference crown if it wins.

The Top Ten with first-place votes in parentheses, season records and total points:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| 1. Mich. State (31) 9-0 | 456 |
| 2. Arkansas (15) 9-0 | 439 |
| 3. Nebraska (2) 9-0 | 378 |
| 4. Notre Dame 7-1 | 346 |
