

CLOSE INSPECTION
Roaming through the Academy Museum in the visitor center cadets Newton, Lyle, Cruz and Guffin closely inspect a realistic model of the F-111A.

CADETS MARCH TO CHOW
At the Air Force Academy no one is excused from formations. Here with the Chapel in the background, the 7th squadron marches to noon chow. The Cadet Wing consists of 24 squadrons divided into four groups.

OUTSIDE AIR FORCE ACADEMY CHAPEL
Air Force Capt. Abel, the group's escort, explains the plaques along the outside of the Academy. The plaques are in memory of cadets who have died while at the Academy or after graduation. He explained that the first cadet to graduate was the first one to die in South Viet Nam.
