

... Ingredients Of Aggie Bonfire

FRESHMEN SHOW STRAIN OF CARRYING LOG OUT OF CUTTING AREA
... big log takes a lot of man power to be carried out, but freshmen display their energy.

AGS TAKE BREAK
... water tastes mighty good after hard work.

ALL PRECAUTIONS ARE TAKEN
... first aid station takes care of all minor cuts and bruises Aggies receive during Bonfire work.

REST AT LAST
... outfit takes break at cutting area.

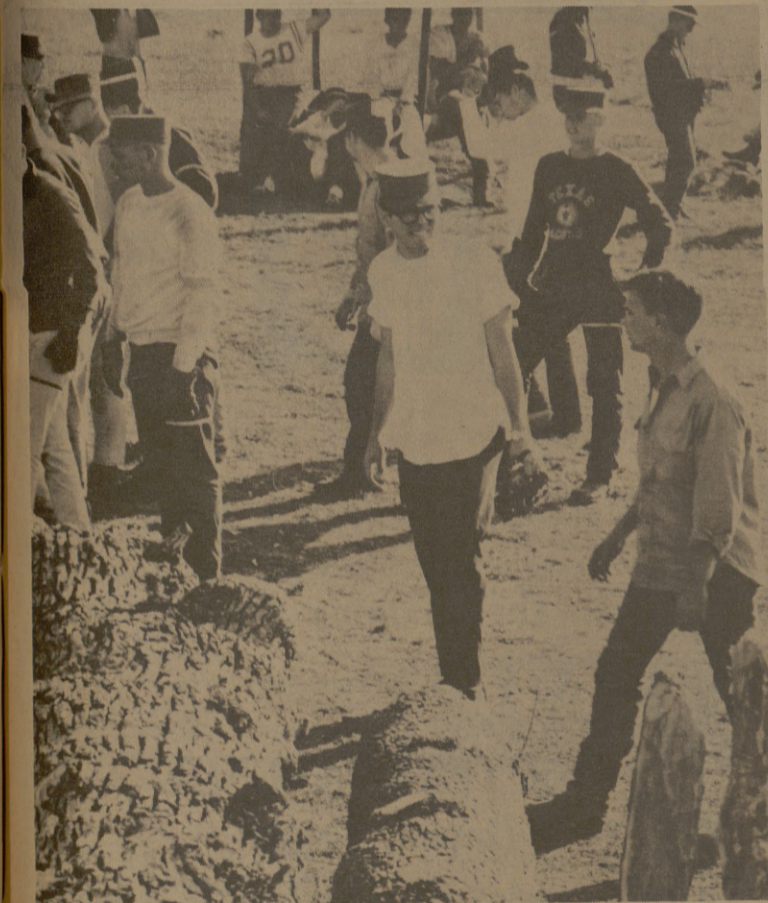

A COFFEE BREAK
... Ag dips in for hot coffee at cutting area.

RESTING AFTER A LONG, HARD DAY
... fish takes breather and water break after hauling logs from cutting area.

Battalion Staff Photos By Herky Killingsworth

Aggies Put In Long Hours In Bonfire Work

FISH SURVEY SITUATION
... senior tells them the 'big' one is next to be loaded.

OKAY, HEAVE
... first step in moving logs from area to area.

UP IT GOES
... second step in carrying logs is demonstrated by freshmen.

Only One Of The Many Tasks: Loading, Unloading Logs

AGGIES GET READY TO LOAD LOGS
... hardest task is getting big ones on trucks to be carried to stacking area.

READY? ON THREE LET HER GO
... logs are unloaded at stacking area behind Duncan Dining Hall.