

12 Seniors Head Grid Letter Winners

Twelve seniors, 19 juniors and eight sophomores comprise the 39-member squad approved for varsity football letters at Texas A&M for the 1965 season.

The Seniors—Bubber Collins, fullback, San Antonio; Jerry

Kachtik, defensive end, Rio Hondo; Charles LaGrange, defensive halfback, Rio Grande City; Dude McLean, split end, Stinnett; Tom Murrah, guard, San Antonio; Jerry Nichols, safety, San Augustine; Ted Nelson, split end, Andrews; John Nilson, tackle, El Campo; Phil Scoggins, punter, Denison; Jim Stabler, halfback, Dallas; Joe Wellborn, linebacker, Tomball and Rickey Whatley, end, Port Lavaca.

The sophomores—Grady Allen, end, Nacogdoches; Bill Barker, guard, Baytown; Robert Barnett, tackle, Houston; Robert Cortez, linebacker, San Benito; Gary Kempf, rover, San Antonio; Harry Ledbetter, quarterback, Breckenridge; Bill Sallee, halfback, Midland and Dan Schneider, fullback, Trafford, Pa.

Of the 12 departing seniors, seven were considered starters last fall. Kachtik, Nichols, Nilson and Wellborn were defensive regulars while McLean, Stabler and Murrah were offensive regulars. Murrah actually started both ways at times.

Scoggins was a punting specialist who saw limited duty late in the year at a linebackers post. The other four—Collins, LaGrange, Nelson and Whatley—were reserves.

Nichols and Wellborn were elected captains by a squad vote recently. Coach Gene Stallings named game captains during the season.

Joe Spadora, student manager from Marlin and Hardy Callcott, student trainer from Kerrville, also were approved for varsity letters.

Bobcat Cagers Win 5 On Tour

Southwest Texas State College cagers grabbed the consolation trophy at the LeMoyné Tournament, Dec. 30, while taking five wins out of eight starts during its 14-day tour throughout the eastern portion of the continent sponsored by the people-to-people committee.

Besides gaining valuable experience in playing top-notch east coast teams, the Bobcats returned to San Marcos with 6-7 season record.

Southwest Texas lost its first two matches to top ranked Oglethorpe University of Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 17, 74-52, and to Statesboro's Georgia Southern College, 78-72, the following night.

A change in the atmosphere and perhaps a "best of luck" wish from President Lyndon B. Johnson, a 1930 graduate of Southwest Texas, initiated a four-game winning streak for the Cats began in Washington D. C. when the Texans tripped up Southwestern University, 88-64, Dec. 20.

Coach Vernon McDonald's crew crossed the border Dec. 22 where they won three more. Ontario's number one amateur basketball squad, Hamilton Quigley was the first Canadian team to submit to the Bobcats, 87-52. SWT defeated the University of Waterloo, Dec. 23, 74-52.

Their final Canadian game was perhaps the biggest triumph for SWT as it outscored the previously undefeated University of Windsor, 116-104, Dec. 27. Windsor has for the last three years been the champion of the Canadian League.

SWT's 116 points was the largest total for court records at the college, edging the 114 set in 1958 against Howard Payne College. Also, the 104 points allowed by the Bobcats were the most conceded thus far.

Hartwick College of Ontario slowed things down for the Bobcats in the opening game of the LeMoyné Christmas Tournament Dec. 29 in Syracuse, N.Y., 81-63. Southwest Texas climaxed the trip with a 97-72 trouncing over Kenyon College of Ohio.

Henry Garcia, 5-11 guard; 6-0 guard Bill Overall; Curley Lennox, 6-4, forward; 6-6 Morris Ogden, center were the best shooters for the Bobcats.

The juniors—Ed Breeding, end-tackle, Jacksboro; Ken Caffey, fullback, Thorndale; Lloyd Curington, halfback, Houston; Tuffy Fletcher, end, Kerrville; Lawson Howard, halfback, West; Jim Kauffman, halfback, Georgetown; Don Koehn, guard-tackle, Brenham; Gary Kovar, guard, Houston; Ken Lamkin, tackle, Early; Larry Lee, halfback, Grapevine; Glynn Lindsey, place-kicker, Palo Pinto; Ronnie Lindsey, halfback, Hallettsville; Eddie McKaughan, quarterback, San Benito; John Poss, end, Brownsville; Jack Pyburn, tackle, Shreveport, La.; John Reynolds, end, Possum Walk; Jim Singleton, center, San Antonio; Joe Weiss, end, Pflugerville and Dan Westerfield, halfback, Crawford.

What's A GARNISH

SUSAN'S mother is a wonderful cook. She'll teach her little girl all about garnishes and dumplings and preserves . . . and about dozens of other skills that will help Susan to be a talented homemaker herself, one day.

WE pass our own store of knowledge on to our children because we want to make things easier for them in the future. They will need all the preparation we can give them in order to cope with a life that grows ever more complex.

ABOVE all, we owe our children the opportunity to learn about their best Friend, God. Awareness of His loving presence will give them confidence and courage whatever they do, wherever they go. Through regular church attendance, they can absorb the inspiring principles of Christianity . . . the most valuable recipes for modern living that exist.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
